P. S. CO. OFFICERS CUT OFF PAYROLL BY RECEIVER KIEL

He Will Fix What Compensation They May Get Later for Services Actually Rendered.

COLLUSION WITH BANKS ALLEGED

Attorneys, Seeking to Intervene, Charge Company Arranged to Have Loans Called.

Former Mayor Henry W. Kiel, receiver for the Public Service Co., announced today that corporate officers of the company have been dropped from their former status on the payroll, and that hereafter will receive only such compensation as the receiver, with the approval of the court, may determine.

Whatever pay they will receive, if any, he said would be for services rendered in connection with operation of the company, for which they may be employed by the receiver at his discretion.

Among those affected is Stanley Clarke, president of the company, whose salary has been $24,985 a year. Other corporate officers are W. Greenland, vice-president and general manager, whose salary also was $24,985; T. E. Francis, general auditor; W. R. Moylan, treasurer, and W. de W. H. Brady, secretary.

Francis was appointed attorney for the receiver by Federal Judge Davis yesterday and his salary that capacity will be fixed by the court. He has been with the legal department of the street railway system for many years, having been general attorney for the Public Service Co. since it purchased the property at a receiver's sale in 1927. Before that he was an attorney for the old United Railways, and served as general counsel for that corporation in receivership when Charles W. Bates was attorney for the receiver.

Kiel said today he was not ready to announce changes in operating management. He is giving immediate attention, he said, to the reduction of overhead expenses, as directed by the court.

Charge of Collusion. Attorneys Everett Hulliverson and Staunton Boudreau asked Judge Davis today for leave to file an intervening petition in the receivership in behalf of four clients, two of whom had claims pending, and the petition they sought to file, the attorneys charged that prior to April 12 the company's officers acted in collusion with its bank creditors to have bank loans called to bring about a receivership and thus defraud the claims of creditors they represent. They seek preferred status for these claims.

The creditors named in the petition are Clarence Elkins, holding a judgment for $10,000 for personal injuries suffered in a collision between a street car and a truck; Elizabeth Thompson, holding a judgment for $700 for personal injuries; Rueben Peterson, whose claim is for $10,000 for personal injuries; and Theodor Thompson, who has presented a claim against the company for $5000.

A formal order defining the duties of the receiver was issued by Judge Davis yesterday. The court order gives the receiver authority to employ such officers, managers, superintendents and employees as he deems advisable and to fix their compensation. The receiver may within six months elect whether to confirm or cancel existing contracts. He has authority, in his discretion, to pay taxes, interest, rentals, principal and other obligations out of the company's revenues.

The right to appoint an additional receiver is reserved by the court.

Time Limit on Claims. Under the court's order persons having claims against the company are directed to present them to the receiver within three months from the time of his appointment. Claims not so presented within that time are to be barred. Disputed claims may be heard by a special master to be appointed later.

The receiver is directed to make a monthly report to the court and the court reserves the right to make such other orders as may be necessary.

BURGLARS BORE WAY INTO BANK SAFE, GET $5000

Townsmen Watches Robbery from Window at Hermitage, Mo., Afraid to Give Alarm.

By the Associated Press. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 19.—Burglars, using an acetylene torch, burned their way into a safe in the Bank of Hermitage, early today and escaped with $5000. Hermitage is in Hickory County, north of here.

Details of the burglary were given by W. E. Johnson, who from the window of his home across the street watched the gang at work. Johnson, a rural mail carrier, who had been aroused by noise of the robbery, had no telephone in his home and said he was afraid to try to leave because the men watched the house.

Seven men participated in the burglary, Johnson reported. The gang drove into Hermitage shortly after midnight, parked two automobiles and entered the bank by jimmying a window. Guards were posted around the bank, which faces on the public square, and some of the men stood beneath a corner street light. Telephone lines to the bank and stores were cut.

Apparently the combination on the vault door was worked, and then the heavy steel of the safe was attacked with the torch. The men used three cream cans of water to keep the safe cool while they worked on it, and left the cans in the bank.

When the money was reached, after two hours, the cars were driven to the bank, and the burglars left by the front door. The cars, one a large new green machine with a trunk rack on the rear, the other a light new car, headed east toward Preston.

After the men had left Johnson hurried to the telephone exchange, and State Highway patrolmen were notified. The telephone operator at Preston saw the cars pass and turn north on Highway No. 65 a moment after receiving the warning message.

Police of Sedalia stopped a car on the highway near Sedalia and arrested two middle-aged men who said they were from Chicago. One said he was H. C. Wade; the other gave his name as George Dunn. Their car was found to contain a large quantity of cash, some water-soaked clothes, and a map with a circle drawn around the town of Hermitage and a route marked from there to Buckner, Mo. A new set of license plates was in the machine.

A heavy rain fell in Baltimore all day and flying conditions were considered hazardous because of the low-hanging clouds and mist.

Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh were met at the flying field by H. V. Thaden, an official of the General Aviation Corporation.

Col. Lindbergh is said to have inspected a transport plane under construction at the General Aviation plant for the Transcontinental Western Air line.

MOUNT EVEREST CROSSED SECOND TIME BY PLANES

By the Associated Press. PURNEAH, India, April 19.—The Houston expedition was reported today to have made a second successful airplane flight over Mount Everest, the highest mountain in the world.

The peak was first crossed April 2 by two British airplanes flown by the Marquess of Clydesdale and Lieut. D. F. McIntyre. The mountain has never been climbed, although many expeditions have attempted it.

PRESIDENT HAS SORE THROAT BUT KEEPS ON WITH WORK

Jokes About Indisposition; Seis Precedent by Receiving Reporters in White House.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 19.—A slight cold, complicated by a sore throat, today caused President Roosevelt to hold his press conference in the oval room at the White House instead of his executive offices. It was the first time in the memory of veteran reporters that a President had talked on news matters in the executive mansion.

It was said that Mr. Roosevelt regarded the cold as something that a little rest and home remedies would clear up. He had not called in a physician, although the Naval Hospital filed a prescription for his use.

The President, handicapped in the cold, smilingly commented on the hand. He told the newsmen to come on in, except when called away by official duties. "My voice hasn't much carrying capacity this morning," his voice seemed to grow stronger as he talked.

He was asked how the cold began and drew a laugh by answering that it was probably from talking too much.

The President planned to carry on his duties as usual today, although his visitors were limited to those on important business.

After the meeting Mayor Dickmann arrived at his office in the City Hall at 9:55 a. m., beginning his first full day as the city's chief executive.

A group of persons desiring to congratulate him or seek jobs was waiting, but in five minutes the new Mayor, who was inaugurated yesterday, went to the Comptroller's office for a meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment.

The Board of Estimate meeting was executive. Comptroller Nolte said the purpose was to go over tentative figures for the budget, consideration of which would be prepared for the new fiscal year. The board consists of the Mayor, the Comptroller and President Neun of the Board of Aldermen.

Dickmann announced he would be at City Hall today, Friday, from now on, except when called away by official duties. He said he would have a message making recommendations to the Board of Aldermen soon, probably including a request for a special election for a bond issue to complete the new Negro hospital.

He has arranged to see newspaper reporters daily at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m.

West Virginia Legislator Offers Resolution After Jurist Says State Measure Was Invalid.

By the Associated Press. CHARLESTON, W. Va., April 19.—A joint resolution recommending to Congress the impeachment of Federal Judge George W. McClinton of the Southern District of West Virginia was introduced in the House of Delegates today by Delegate Beacom, father of the state beer act.

Citing Judge McClinton's charge to a Federal grand jury yesterday, the resolution said the judge "publicly threatened with prosecution" any person bringing beer into the state. In his charge to the grand jury Judge McClinton said the state beer act was unconstitutional and directed the grand jury to investigate shipments of beer into the state under a provision of the Federal beer act giving protection to dry states. The resolution demanded that the grand jury impeach for his high-handed and notorious misconduct in office.

ROOSEVELT'S ADVISERS AGREE ON RAILROAD LEGISLATION

Plan Submitted to Him Expected to Be Sent to Congress in Day or Two.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 19.—President Roosevelt is expected by certain advisers to submit legislation to Congress in a day or two for reorganization of the railroads through a Federal co-ordinator with broad powers to eliminate duplication and waste.

The legislation has been agreed on by the committee of experts selected by the President to draft it, and submitted to him. The plan would operate for one year only.

Appeals from the decisions of the co-ordinator could be taken to the Interstate Commerce Commission, but would go into effect without waiting for hearings.

$6000 CONTINGENT FUND CUT AGREED ON

Decision on Reductions Announced After Meeting of Board of Estimate on Budget.

Mayor Dickmann announced, after a meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment today, that he and all his appointees would accept 10 per cent reductions from their authorized salaries, continuing an economy practice started last June 1.

Dickmann agreed also to a reduction of the Mayor's contingent fund from $12,500 a year to $6500 a year. He has pledged himself to devote the money to public relief.

The board today agreed to continue taking the 10 per cent salary reduction. The Charter fixes the Mayor's salary at $10,000 a year and that of the Comptroller at $8000.

To Ask Officers to Take Cut. All city officials are to be asked by Assistant Comptroller Cunningham, at the direction of the Board of Estimate, to give formal consent to the pay cut. Judges and other officials paid by the city, but serving under State laws, will be asked to accept the cut. Similar action was taken last year, and most officials agreed.

Mayor Dickmann arrived at his office in the City Hall at 9:55 a. m., beginning his first full day as the city's chief executive.

A group of persons desiring to congratulate him or seek jobs was waiting, but in five minutes the new Mayor, who was inaugurated yesterday, went to the Comptroller's office for a meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment.

WITHOUT SUPPORT DOLLAR SINKS ON FOREIGN EXCHANGE

Closes at $3.55 to Pound in London, Yesterday at $3.47—Theory Is Action Is Deliberate.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 19.—The dollar closed at $3.55 to the pound at London today, yesterday's close was $3.47. Later it fell to $3.63 to $3.64. In Paris the dollar hit a new official low since November, 1925, closing at 24.60 francs, and in unofficial trading after the close of the Bourse it dropped to 24.30 francs.

LONDON, April 19.—An excited foreign exchange market watched the pound rise today 14 cents from yesterday's low point and couldn't be sure why.

The dollar was unsupported by American interests as it easily might have been by the shipment of gold abroad. It was not supported by the Bank of England. It was seemingly at the mercy of market speculators who were "bearing" it in response to statements from America that inflation was near.

The interesting theory is advanced here that America is deliberately letting the dollar fall on the eve of Prime Minister MacDonald's arrival in America, thus using on the British some of the nuances of "Parisian diplomacy" which traditionally does not shun putting on the financial screws before important diplomatic exchanges.

It will be recalled that before Premier Laval's visit to America came a peremptory French demand for an increase in the interest paid on French deposits in New York and a threat of gold withdrawal.

It is believed here that America may be trying to impress upon the world that it has weapons which it can use if the world economic conference does not result in fair treatment of American goods abroad.

With depreciation of the value of the dollar abroad, American exports at once enjoy a premium in relation to goods sold in other currencies. Britain, ever since the departure from gold, has enjoyed this premium, with the result that it has emerged once more as the world's leading exporter after having been passed by both America and Germany.

While it is not believed that America has set aside a large sum like Great Britain's own equalization fund of $750,000,000 to manipulate the exchanges, America can accomplish the depreciation of the dollar by negative action by not shipping gold. No one here can credit any theory that America is letting the dollar slip without an express object in view. Consequently there is a belief that a definite policy is being followed.

SUPREME COURT STEPS INTO STATE INSURANCE FIGHT

Enforcing Order Permitting 74 Firms' Collection of Increased Fire Rates.

By a Jefferson City Correspondent. JEFFERSON CITY, April 19.—The Missouri Supreme Court on June today assumed jurisdiction in the suit by Attorney-General McKittrick to prevent 74 of the stock fire insurance companies in Missouri from collecting a 16.3 per cent increase in fire and windstorm insurance rates, now in force, pending a decision in litigation over reasonableness of the increase.

The court issued a preliminary rule of prohibition restraining Judge Nike G. Sevier of Cole County Circuit Court from taking any action toward enforcing an order which, the Attorney-General contends, authorizes the companies to continue an alleged illegal collection of the higher rates, while litigation is in progress, and directing him to show cause why excess premiums already collected should not be returned to the policyholders.

The preliminary rule of prohibition was made returnable in 10 days. After Judge Sevier's answer is filed, the case will be set for hearing in the May term of the Supreme Court on the question of whether the rule of prohibition shall be made absolute.

This case is a companion one to a quo warranto proceeding, now pending in the Supreme Court in which the Attorney-General is attempting to restrain all of the 215 stock fire insurance companies operating in the State from collecting the increased rates. The quo warranto proceeding is based on a charge the companies have violated their charter or corporate privileges by alleged illegal collection of the rates increase, after it was disapproved by State Insurance Superintendent Joseph B. Thompson on May 28, 1930.

The higher rates were put in force by the companies on June 1, 1930, under a temporary injunction issued by the Federal District Court at Kansas City, and litigation over the rates is pending in that court and in the State courts. In the Federal Court proceedings 135 companies are asking for an injunction to restrain the State Insurance Department from interfering with collection of the increase.

The increase in rates is being imposed in each of the court proceedings, pending a final decision. Thus far about $5,000,000 has been impounded in Federal Court and more than $1,000,000 has been impounded in Cole County Circuit Court.

There was an expectation in the capital that Roosevelt would move swiftly and some party leaders believed a request from the President by tomorrow was in prospect. A draft of a measure was reported at the White House.

Senator Thomas (Dem.), Oklahoma, who yesterday withdrew his measure for currency inflation, today revised his bill to extend abroad powers to the President to deal with the situation. This bill likelihood will be the basis of the Roosevelt proposal.

Also, in authentic quarters elsewhere, it was asserted that the President, in preparing for the American dollar in foreign exchanges will not forbid the normal exports to meet commercial balances and the shipment of gold earmarked by foreign governments.

WANTS POWER TO WORK OUT PLAN

Chief Executive Reported Planning to Ask Congress for Full Command Over Currency—May Suggest Gold Ratio Less Than 40 Per Cent.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 19.—President Roosevelt moved today on the international and domestic fronts in a broad campaign to restore American price levels, wages and credit.

To attain a position to deal with the foreign powers which have gone onto depreciated standards of currency, he withdrew support of the American dollar in the foreign exchanges and announced the restoration of the embargo on gold shipped abroad for this purpose.

He evinced determination to exert efforts toward bringing all nations back onto the gold standard—perhaps at a lower ratio than the existing 40 per cent gold reserve for currency.

By bringing about a restoration of the world monetary situation the President is confident of improving the position of American currency and trade.

No Effort Licensees. Secretary Woodin said late today that the Treasury was granting no licenses for the exportation of gold. The secretary said that while no license for exporting gold was being issued, that regulations would be issued under which earmarked gold could be exported.

Ten regulation was being drawn under the President's proclamation April 15 calling in all gold and requiring it to be turned over to the Federal Reserve banks by May 1. The secretary declined to expand upon his statement saying that the regulations would show just what gold could and could not be exported.

Congressional leaders understand President Roosevelt is ready to ask for full command to work out in his own way the controlled inflation he purposes to establish by international and domestic action. Details were being awaited late today and meanwhile those concerned declined comment.

MAYOR DICKMANN COMPLETES MAJOR APPOINTMENTS

Frank J. McDevitt, Consulting Engineer, Named Director of Streets and Sewers.

RALPH W. COALE TO BE ASSESSOR

James P. Finnegan, Former Football Star at St. Louis University, Made Police Judge.

Three more appointments were announced by Mayor Dickmann last night within 10 hours after he took office. They are:

Director of Streets and Sewers—Frank J. McDevitt, consulting engineer.

Assessor—Ralph W. Coale, veteran Democratic politician and real estate dealer. Coale, who had charge of headquarters in Dickmann's campaign, was the party nominee for President of the Board of Aldermen in 1931.

Police Judge, City Court No. 1—James P. Finnegan, lawyer and former St. Louis University football star.

The new Mayor's major appointments have been completed with the selection of McDevitt and Coale. McDevitt is the fifth and last member to be picked for the Board of Public Service. His appointment was a surprise to politicians. Coale's choice had been anticipated.

Awards Committee Report.

Mayor Dickmann expects to receive recommendations for appointment of Health and Hospital Commissioners today or tomorrow from a committee of physicians headed by Dr. R. Emmet Kane. He said he would name to these positions the men the committee proposes.

The committee is non-partisan. Dr. Kane is not prepared to announce its recommendations yet.

Nine of the 10 officials appointed so far by Mayor Dickmann were sworn in by City Register Grose in the Mayor's office this morning and took charge of their departments at once.

Besides McDevitt, Coale and Finnegan, they are: Baxter L. Brown, president of the Board of Public Service; Edward E. Wall, Director of Public Utilities; Joseph M. Darst, Director of Public Welfare; George W. Chadsey, Director of Public Safety; Victor P. Rosch, Supply Commissioner; and Paul H. Murphy, secretary to the Mayor.

Charles M. Hay, appointed City Counselor, will not take office until May 1 and was not sworn in. He has been consulting with the Law Department staff. However, two new officials, including Hay, but not Finnegan, conferred with Dickmann as their first action. The Mayor told them to assume immediate charge of their work, but not to disturb the employees presently for the present. He said their salaries would not begin until May 1. The outgoing officials will be paid for the whole of April and are to be welcome to remain in their offices for the remainder of the month.

Public Service Board.

The new Board of Public Service will consist of Brown, Wall, Darst, Chadsey and McDevitt. Wall was Director of Public Utilities for a short time at the beginning and Mayor Miller's administration and previously was Water Commissioner for years. Brown was first engineer for the City Plan Commission for a few months about 20 years ago. The others are newcomers to city service.

Dickmann and McDevitt, a Democrat inactive in politics, met this week for the first time. Those who firm never has done city work, was one of five candidates recommended for Director of Streets and Sewers by a committee of engineers advising Dickmann. It was nearly 10 o'clock last night when McDevitt was notified he had been chosen.

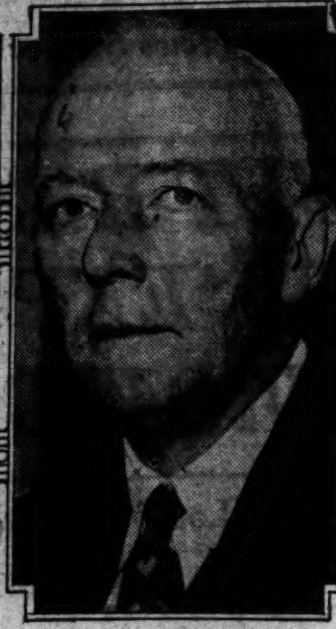

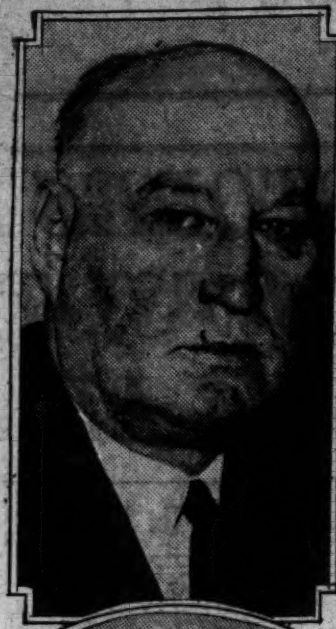

He is vice-president of the Baumes-McDevitt Co., consulting engineers with offices in the Railway Exchange Building, but announced he was severing all connections with the company, financial and otherwise. He will succeed Robert B. Brooks as director.

McDevitt Started at Bottom.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., 52 years ago, McDevitt started engineering work at the bottom, driving stakes in the construction of the Pittsburgh street railways from cable to trolley operation. He spent several years working on the Erie Railroad and in the construction of car lines at Havana, Cuba; then attended Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa. Graduated there as a mechanical engineer, he spent about six years in the mills of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. and Carnegie Steel Co. at Youngstown, O.

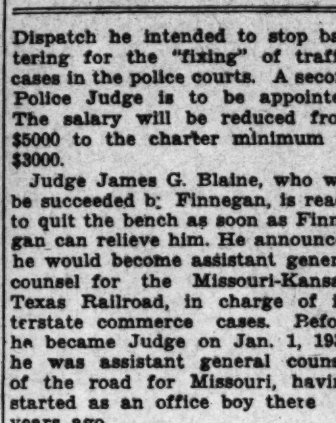

Coming to St. Louis in 1911, McDevitt joined in forming the Baumes-McDevitt Co. It has done general engineering work here and in various parts of the country. Among its installations are the power plants at Washington University on the main and medical campus. During the World War McDevitt Coale to Limit Fees.

Coale, who resides at 8 Westmoreland place, has agreed to collect no more in salary and fees as a member of the Board of Public Service than the members of the Board of Public Service receive. A board member's pay is fixed by charter at $8000 a year, but like other city employees, the old members have been taking a 10 per cent reduction. The Assessor's salary is $5000, but the Assessor has been receiving annual fees of $7000 to $8000 or more for handling State income tax returns.

Dickmann said the salary and fees together at times had reached $17,000 a year or more. This office has been the greatest political plum at the Mayor's disposal. Coale said his agreement to waive the excess was only for the period of the financial stringency. He will take the full amount of fees from the State and turn the excess over to the city treasury.

Every Deputy Assessor to be appointed by Coale will be a qualified real estate man, Dickmann announced. Dickmann is president of the Real Estate Exchange. Coale said he would pick only "good men" as deputies.

Coale was born here Aug. 10, 1876, and educated at St. Louis University. After several years of miscellaneous work, he entered the employ of Cornet & Zebig, real estate dealers, 30 years ago. He carries on a variety of duties for this partnership, of which he is not a member.

In House of Delegates.

From 1905 to 1907 Coale was a member of the old House of Delegates. He was the Democratic nominee for Congress in the old Tenth District in 1908, at a time when he was president of the old Jefferson Club. In 1918 he ran unsuccessfully for nomination for State Senator. He has been active in many political campaigns and a frequent delegate to party conventions.

As a member of the House of Delegates, Coale introduced the original bill providing for the Municipal Bridge and he successfully fought a combine in the House in passing a bill for the Manufacturers' Railway. The franchise admitting the forerunner of the Illinois Terminal System was adopted largely through his efforts. He participated in establishment of the City Art Museum in Forest Park and the adoption of legislation providing for city tree planting along the streets. His family has lived here about 150 years. Fred Gehner is the retiring Assessor.

Police Judge's Salary.

Finnegan, who will be a Police Judge, is a Democrat. He was active in the Twenty-fourth Ward in Dickmann's campaign and in supporting the late Francis M. Wilson for Governor last year. He has known Dickmann for a number of years. Finnegan, who is married and resides at 1908 Forest avenue, was born here Jan. 20, 1901, and was graduated from St. Louis University Law School in 1922. He was captain of the university's 1921 football and track teams. His practice of law has been general, seldom taking him to Police Court. His office is in the International Building.

SENATE SLASHES HIT ST. LOUIS TO TUNE OF $600,000

Funds for City Sanitarium Patients and Two Teachers' Colleges Are Cut Out of House Measure.

By CURTIS A. BETTS, A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 19.—The economy program cut St. Louis more than $600,000 in one bill passed by the Senate yesterday. In addition, St. Louis will be deprived of future aid for the Harris and Stowe teachers' colleges, for which it has been entitled to slightly more than $100,000 a year.

Over the protest of Senator Kinney, the Senate adopted an amendment striking out of the House bill an appropriation of $475,000 to carry out the provisions of a law passed two years ago directing the payment of $8 for each charity patient in the St. Louis Sanitarium. Kinney attempted to save at least $200,000 of the appropriation, but his amendment was rejected.

In another section of the bill St. Louis was deprived of about $58,000 of a total of about $108,000 due it from a teachers' training fund appropriation made two years ago and which was only partly paid. The 1931 Legislature allotted $415,000 for aid to teachers' colleges in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph. St. Louis was entitled to $215,000 of this amount, but because of this amount of revenue received only $107,000.

Senator Brogan Overruled.

To meet the deficiency the House included in the appropriation bill an item of $840,000, which was in excess of the amount required. The Senate committee reduced the amount to $170,000, arbitrarily cutting it in two, which made it considerably less than was needed. Senator Brogan protested against the reduction but was overruled; the Senate committee amendment being adopted. St. Louis' part of the $170,000 will be about $58,000 less than the amount due.

St. Louis will suffer no more than Kansas City, St. Joseph and other smaller cities which have been training courses from a failure to make an appropriation for such aid from the State in the future. Senator Bales said on the floor that there was a large surplus of teachers in the State and that for that reason and because of the shortage of State revenue, the committee had decided to include no funds for the purpose for the next two years.

It will be possible for the 1935 Legislature to resume payments. The bill in which the cuts were made included appropriations for many State agencies and activities. The net reductions from the amounts expended during 1931 and 1932 were not so large as in most of the other appropriation bills passed by the Senate. The total was much below that of the House bill before it was amended.

The total appropriated from the general revenue fund in the House bill was $2,249,806. The Senate reduced this to $2,656,160, which was only $133,621 below the expenditures of 1931 and 1932.

Increase in Special Funds.

In addition to the allotments from the general revenue fund there were appropriations of $4,080,176 from special funds, an increase of $62,177 over the comparable figure in the House bill. A comparison of the amount with the 1931-1932 expenditures was impossible because statistics for some of the special funds were not available.

In the general revenue appropriations there were some increases and some decreases. Two of the departments with which other departments were consolidated by the present Legislature were allotted considerably less money than the expenditures for the combined activities in the last two years.

The Board of Health, with which the Food and Drug Department was consolidated, will receive $335,250 from the general revenue fund for 1933 and 1934. In the last two years the expenditures for the consolidated departments were $478,221, or $142,971 more than appropriated this year.

The appropriations from the general revenue fund for agricultural purposes, except the College of Agriculture at Columbia, totaled $300,586 when the Senate finished amending the House bill. In the last two years the actual expenditures for the purposes covered by the appropriations in this bill were $377,050. These included several separate activities which have been consolidated under the new Commissioner of Agriculture, who succeeds the Board of Agriculture, the Fruit Experiment Station and the Poultry Experiment Station.

The largest single increase in the bill was in the amount set aside to Senator Fletcher (Dem., Florida), told the Senate this afternoon that America needed a "controlled inflation" to increase currency circulation and raise prices.

"We must put our dollar on an equal basis with the currency of other great trading nations," said the Senator in the midst of farm bill debate.

"If England and the United States would adopt a measure of value, consisting of gold and silver, the rest of the world would follow, and we would have a stable measure which would stimulate trade, raise values and change the psychological condition from one of fear to hope, and gradually lead to prosperity."

There is not enough gold to stabilize the various nations, he said, existing before the war, he contended, and therefore "there must be found some other basis for currency."

INFLATIONISTS BLOCK MOVE TO TIGHTEN HOUSE RULES

Democratic Leaders Abandon Their Plan After Action by Rump Caucus.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Speaker Rainey and Representative Byrns of Tennessee, the House Democratic leader, said today they had abandoned the attempt to increase from 145 to 215 the number of petitioners necessary to force a bill out of committee and onto the floor for a vote.

The capitulation occurred after 50 inflationists, led by Representatives Howard and Carpenter of Nebraska, and Patman and Dies of Texas, in a rump caucus yesterday went on record against the tighter rule, which would have prevented action on any legislation except that recommended by President Roosevelt's leaders.

MATRON BEATEN WITH POKER BY INMATE OF PRISON FARM

St. Louis Negro Woman Slayer Attacks Employee of Missouri Farm No. 1.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 19.—Mrs. Margaret Rose, 50 years old, assistant matron of State Prison Farm No. 1, is confined to a bed in the farm residence today as the result of injuries suffered last night when she was attacked by Mattie Gaters, 28, Negro inmate.

The Gaters woman, who is serving a 40-year sentence from St. Louis for murder from March 3, 1920, struck Mrs. Rose on the head and shoulders with an iron stove poker, prison officials said. Although officials said Mrs. Rose's injuries were not serious, she was unable to return to her home in Jefferson City after the attack.

The Gaters woman was placed in solitary confinement as the result of the attack.

MAN FOUND FATALLY INJURED BESIDE RAILROAD NEAR ALTON

Vernon Dobson, 45 years old, died at St. Joseph's Hospital in Alton early today of a fractured skull suffered several hours before.

He was found beside the Illinois Terminal tracks in Hartford, near Alton, but police were unable to determine whether he had been hit by a train.

He had lived in Hartford for the past month and had been employed to do gardening work. His wife and two sons reside at Skis-ton, Mo. A daughter lives in Hartford.

pay costs in criminal cases, pay the transportation of convicts to prison and to meet special cost in the apprehension of criminals. For this purpose the bill carried a total of $640,000. In the last two years the amount paid out was $575,015.

Dickmann to See Park and Urge

Following a meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment today, Mayor Dickmann announced he would go to Jefferson City and urge Gov. Park and Senate leaders tomorrow an attempt to have reinstated in the House bill the $475,000 appropriation for insane patients in the City Sanitarium.

The Mayor will be accompanied by Assistant Comptroller Cunningham; Walter B. Weisenburger, president of the Chamber of Commerce; and Jacob M. Lashly, chairman of the board of the Chamber.

The refusal of the Senate to include the fund in the bill presents a new difficulty in the city's effort to balance its budget. The city has been bearing the whole cost of caring for its insane. The State aid—at the rate of $8 a month for each patient—had been promised in 1931 in return for the city's decision to oppose the new State income-tax law.

Walter B. Weisenburger, president of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, said the State Senate, refusing to appropriate funds for the City Sanitarium, had repudiated an agreement made two years ago in recognition of the State's obligation to contribute toward the care of the insane in St. Louis.

"Not only has this Legislature repudiated that agreement," Weisenburger said, "but it has passed a bill (Senate Bill No. 170) which would require St. Louis to pay half the cost of caring for insane patients sent to State hospitals by other sections of the State."

The Chamber yesterday asked Gov. Park to veto Senate Bill No. 170. It would permit counties, including the City of St. Louis, to send their insane to State institutions without charge. The counties now pay $15 a month. The effect of the bill would be to shift the cost of operating the hospitals to the State's general revenue fund, half of which is derived from St. Louis.

REPUBLICANS ASK RUEY LONG TO TEACH THEM ORATORY

Young G. O. P. Group Trying to Put Some Pep in Maryland Campaign for Governor.

By the Associated Press.

BALTIMORE, April 19.—Determined to develop some silver-tongued orators for the 1934 gubernatorial campaign, the Young Republican League of Maryland has gone outside of party ranks to invite speakers to demonstrate to its members the art of political oratory.

Near the head of the list are two Democratic United States Senators, Huey Long of Louisiana and Millard E. Tydings of Maryland. Several local Democrats also are invited to address the league's class in public speaking. The classes are "opened to men and women, and Democrats as well as Republicans."

FIVE KILLED AS MEXICAN CATHOLICS AND TROOPS CLASH

Fight Follows Efforts of Villagers to Restore Barred Images to Churches.

GUADALAJARA, Mexico, April 19.—Five persons were killed and several wounded today in a clash between Catholics and Government troops in the village of Santa Fe, part of the municipality of Zapotitan in the State of Guadalajara.

The fight followed barring of the use of images in the village church. Villagers forced their way into the church and restored the images, whereupon the troops were reported to have opened fire.

GIRL AND ADMIRER SLAIN

VINITA, Ok., April 19.—A few hours after Irene Washburn, 19 years old, had been shot fatally by an assailant as she went to a spring for a pail of water, the body of Robert Epperson, 21, former suitor, was found yesterday in a wood nearby.

Sheriff John York expressed belief Epperson had shot the girl, then himself, because of jealousy. Before she died Miss Washburn told officers she did not know who shot her.

MAN WHO HAWKED TAX GRAFT NOTES HAS 'GONE SOUTH'

Persistent Efforts by Harry Parker to Sell Documents Led to Investigation of Officials.

Harry Parker, whose efforts to hawk a set of letters to East St. Louisans led to disclosure by the Post-Dispatch of widespread tax grafting in St. Clair County, has "gone south."

With his mother, Mrs. Bertha Parker, his 12-year-old son, Billy, and their dog, they left East St. Louis after Parker had finally sold the letters to a St. Louis newspaper. Presumably the proceeds of the sale, understood to be $1000, financed the trip, which is known to have taken the Parkers and their dog to New Orleans and Gulfport, Miss., in Parker's secondhand automobile during the early part of this month.

Parker's letters, originally offered for sale on an East Side business, were to be used in wringing money from county officials who had been participating in tax grafts, purported to have been written by Addison J. Throp, registered chairman of the Board of Review, and now a voluntary prisoner in Belleville jail waiting to testify before the county grand jury in an inquiry scheduled to begin Friday.

Activities Led to Inquiry. Parker's persistent efforts to hawk the letters caused the Post-Dispatch to make an investigation of Throp's activities which led to his resignation last Wednesday and his confession of complicity in tax frauds, in which he has also implicated two county officials, two for-mer county officials, the auditor of an East Side packing firm, an East St. Louis attorney and an East Side contractor.

As soon as he had sold the letters, which Throp declares to be spurious, Parker purchased a secondhand Ford for $150 from a widow in French Village, east of East St. Louis, and made a hurried trip to Springfield to get license plates for the least expensive car in the lot. The letters, implicating Throp in tax grafts, were offered for sale with the understanding Parker's name would not be used in connection with their publication, that he would not have to assist prosecuting officials in any investigation, and that he could go away, if he wished.

Son Leaves School. So that there would be no mistake about the conditions, Parker left town with celerity. He was last seen in East St. Louis on April 1 or 2. His son left his classes at the George Rogers Clark Junior High School, told schoolmates he was going to Texas with his father, and disappeared along with his father and grandmother.

Next word of the traveling Parkers came to East St. Louis on April 6, when Mrs. W. F. Browne of Prospect Park received a miniature blue of cotton from Mrs. Parker, her aunt. It was postmarked New Orleans, April 7.

The following day Mrs. Browne received a postcard from Mrs. Parker at Gulfport, Miss. Dated April 8, it carried the following message: "We have been halfway around the globe. Were in New Orleans yesterday. It is beautiful down here. Billy has a good time fishing and bathing in the Gulf. He has washed for Joe (a playmate). We are leaving here tomorrow. Love to all. Will let you hear soon again."

On the same day, Billy Parker's teachers received postcards from him, mailed both from New Orleans and Gulfport. As far as determined, no other communications have since been received from the Parker party.

Throp Explains Letters. Parker, a husky six-footer, with a ruddy face and an easy manner of making conversation, is charged by Throp with having himself written the letters which he sold Throp explained that Parker, an employee of Throp's Call Printing Co. in East St. Louis, was told to write letters of thanks to six or seven St. Clair County Democrats who had endorsed Throp around the first of this year for appointment to a State park job.

Throp said he simply signed six or seven blank sheets of his business stationery and told Parker to type on them appropriate notes of thanks. He was unable to account for the final four of the tax fraud letters. One purported to summarize collections of $25,000 tax graft money. Another purported to be an introduction for an emissary of the graft ring to an official of a corporation while two others were purported solicitations for loans of $5000 and $1000, respectively, from two different corporations.

Parker made Throp's acquaintance about 18 months ago when he came upon Throp at target practice in the East Side bluffs with

Wreckage of Plane in Which Four Arkansans Died

FOUR prominent citizens of Augusta, Ark., were killed yesterday morning when their plane crashed and burned six miles northwest of Valmeyer, Ill., as the 19-year-old pilot, W. N. Gregory Jr., attempted to make a forced landing in a wheat field. The other victims were Gregory's father, a wealthy cotton planter; G. W. Martin, Mayor of Augusta, and Glen Herndon, manager of a mercantile company.

A group of the Boy Scouts of the troop of which Throp was scoutmaster. "He was an affable fellow and a good shot," Throp said. "He asked for a job and I gave him one as bookkeeper of my printing company. The boys in the troop liked him. He seemed to know a lot about woodcraft and he was always affable."

"He told good stories, too. One time, I remember, he said quite casually that he was a former army aviator. Another time he told of going on an exploration trip up the Amazon River with a party of 15. He repeated the story in detail to the boys at a troop meeting and told how he and two others were the only survivors. He said he had been shot in the chest by a tropical fever but he made it sound true, too."

Throp admitted he had taken Parker into his confidence on certain phases of the tax graft, which consisted in collecting money from corporations in consideration of "letting them alone" on assessments. How much he told Parker he was unable to say, he declared, but he added that Parker "probably knew plenty."

Parker, who is 36 years old, has maintained for some years past an air of "being on the inside" in many matters. Three years ago he professed to know the details of a plot to free "Dizzy" Daniels, a St. Louis Cuckoo gang hoodlum, from the Jefferson City penitentiary where he is serving a life term for the murder of a policeman.

At that time Parker made two visits to a Post-Dispatch reporter in East St. Louis during which he outlined what he described as a previous unsuccessful plan to escape. He declared he would supply the details of a new plot in which weapons were to be smuggled to Daniels and other convicts in preparation for a break for liberty.

Discharged by Throp. He failed to show up to enlarge on the information he had outlined, however, and shortly thereafter dropped out of sight in East St. Louis. He had returned with his mother and son a short time before he made Throp's acquaintance. Throp was so taken with him that he not only gave him a job, but gave the family free lodging in a small house on Throp's property in Prospect Park. Parker left the place with his family just before Throp discharged him in January because of dissatisfaction with his services to the printing company. Then he began hawking the letters which Throp insists are spurious.

MPRE AKRON WRECKAGE RECOVERED FROM OCEAN

By the Associated Press.

LEWES, Del., April 19.—Beach patrols of the Coast Guard stations at Lewes and Cape Henlopen today picked up pieces of wreckage thought to have come from the Akron.

At the Cape, what is thought to be a piece of outwalk, 10 1/2 feet by 8 feet, was found. Nearby was discovered a table top, 2 feet by 6 feet, also starboard window No. 13, 20 by 25 inches in size.

At Lewes, the patrol found a mattress or large cushion with a string attached.

The Lewes Coast Guard station also reported that an aluminum gas tank was found at Smith's Island, Virginia, about 150 miles south of the Delaware capes. It had a capacity of 120 gallons and weighed about 10 pounds. It bore the date "December, 1929."

FRISCO OFFICERS FOR BANKRUPTCY UNDER NEW LAW

Think Reorganization Plan Already Approved Can Best Be Carried Out in That Way.

With officers of the Frisco Railroad, now in receivership, favoring a bankruptcy action under the new law, bondholders' committees are submitting a proposal that the action be taken to further the road's reorganization plan.

The plan has been accepted by holders of more than two-thirds of the bonds affected and consequently, in the opinion of officers, could be carried out under the new bankruptcy law.

E. N. Brown, chairman of the Reorganization Committee, said in New York today that the next step in the proposed reorganization would depend on the decision of security owners on the plan submitted to them by the chairman of the three bondholders' committees.

The new bankruptcy law provides that a railroad filing a bankruptcy petition may present a reorganization plan to the Interstate Commerce Commission. The commission may approve the plan, provided it has been accepted by creditors of every affected class holding two-thirds in amount of claims and by stockholders holding two-thirds of each affected class of stock.

If provision is made in the plan for adequate protection of any class of creditors or stockholders, then acceptance by that class is not necessary. If the creditors accept the plan and it is approved by the commission, it may be finally confirmed by the Federal Court after a hearing on objections. On confirmation, the plan may be put into effect by the road, subject to the jurisdiction of the commission. The railroad property then would be returned to the road free of all claims except as provided in the plan.

Plan to Cut Fixed Charges.

The reorganization plan was drawn last July, after the Interstate Commerce Commission approved a loan of $1,500,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation on condition that the road would reduce its fixed interest charges.

The Frisco management said the plan would reduce fixed charges from about $13,700,000 annually to about $9,500,000 through 1936 and would make a large part of present charges contingent on earnings for a further period of five years.

POLICE raided a house in Joplin, Mo., where Clyde and Ivy (Buck) Barrow wanted for the murder of two Missouri officers were reported living with two women. They failed to find the brothers, but discovered this picture, which has been sent broadcast as a possible clue to the identity of the women.

bond interest would be a fixed charge, with the remainder for a five-year period until July 1, 1942, contingent on earnings. If, however, earnings for two consecutive years should equal $3,000,000 plus one and one-half times interest on all outstanding obligations, then all interest after the succeeding July 1 would be fixed.

Stock Bonus. As compensation for the postponement of interest, prior lien bondholders would receive for each $1000 bond two-thirds of a share of preferred stock and one share of common stock, and consolidated bondholders would get one-half share of preferred and three-fourths share of common.

REFUSES TO TURN OFF RADIO, PUNCHED BY CONGRESSMAN

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—A warrant was sought in Police Court today for the arrest of Representative Shoemaker of Minnesota on a charge of assaulting a neighbor, who refused to turn off his radio at the request of the Farmer-Laborite. Theodore Cohen, who lives in an apartment adjoining that occupied by Shoemaker, told an Assistant United States District Attorney that the blow that Shoemaker aimed at his eye was so effective that several stitches were required to close the wound. The request for a warrant was taken under advisement. Shoemaker said there had been too much singing of "Sweet Adeline" in the apartment. "I stood it three nights and that was enough," he said.

FORMER MAYOR MILLER ILL AND IN SECLUSION

Living Under Medical Care in Apartment Overlooking Sound at Mamaroneck, N. Y.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

MAMARONECK, N. Y., April 19.—Former Mayor Victor J. Miller of St. Louis, whose official term ended yesterday, is living in seclusion, and under medical care, at the Oriana Point Apartments in this suburban town on Long Island Sound, 35 minutes by train from Forty-second street, New York.

A Post-Dispatch reporter, inquiring for Miller at the apartment, has been told by Mrs. Miller that he was ill and could see no one. Mrs. Miller declined to say anything about the future plans of her husband and herself as to a place of abode. The Pershing avenue apartment in St. Louis was closed before they came here.

When the reporter called first, he was told by Mrs. Dowell, housekeeper and nurse, formerly employed by the Millers in St. Louis, that Miller was asleep. Calling later in the day, the reporter was told by the apartment house doorman that the physician in charge of Miller's case had given strict orders that he should see no one. Mrs. Miller, when reached by telephone later, said the same thing.

Since his departure from St. Louis, nearly a month ago, Miller has occupied a six-room apartment on the sixth floor of the Oriana building, overlooking the Sound. He has been seen occasionally walking in the neighborhood, or at a picture show, with Mrs. Dowell or a younger woman who assists her. His identity and official position were known in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Miller has spent a part of her time in New York, but has been here on the occasion of the physician's visits, and has taken a visitor or two to the apartment. However, the apartment house management was informed, when the Millers took the apartment, that they did not expect to receive visitors. The apartment house rents its quarters by the month, and it is not known how long a stay the Millers have planned.

COMMUNITY FUND CAMPAIGN ENTERS ITS FINAL WEEK

Total of $223,623 of $600,000 Sought for Character Building Agencies, Subscribed So Far.

Workers in the Community Fund's campaign for character building agencies entered the last week of the appeal today with subscriptions toward the $600,000 goal totaling $223,623. Regardless of what progress is made during the next week, the campaign will end a week from today.

When the campaign, interrupted by the bank holiday, was resumed yesterday, additional pledges of $83,529 were reported, most of them having been obtained by the special gifts division during the time in which the campaign was suspended. Among the larger gifts reported yesterday were:

$5000—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Howard Jr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Howard.

$3000—Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

$1000—Laclede Gas Light Co.

$1000—Huber-Busch, Inc., Mrs. Jackson Johnson, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

$750—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Johnson.

$600—Mrs. John A. Haskell.

$250—Mrs. William D. Orthwein, Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney Dry Goods Co., Mr. and Mrs. John S. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Danforth.

$150—Burkart Manufacturing Co., $100—Mr. George A. Bass, Blackmer & Post Pipe Co., John M. Blaney, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boogher.

Mayor Dickmann, as one of his first official acts, issued a statement urging support of the campaign. The urgent need for providing relief for the destitute, he said, should not obscure the need for continuing the work of agencies dealing with the health and morale of youth.

"I cannot imagine St. Louis trying to get along without the aid of the 20 agencies now conducting the campaign," the Mayor's statement said. "If they should close shop, or even seriously curtail their activities, the city government would be in a desperate situation. Neither we nor the Federal Government can finance them. They depend entirely upon the voluntary giving of our citizens."

Campaign Chairman David D. Metcalfe and Forrest C. Donnell, attorney, at yesterday's meeting urged the workers to give their best efforts toward reaching the goal. Both said the money could be obtained if the need could be impressed on those who may be expected to give. Another meeting of workers will be held tomorrow at Hotel Statler.

Another Duststorm in Kansas

MASS MEETING AGAINST RECOGNIZING RUSSIA

Father Walsh, Green and Representative Fish Among Speakers at Washington.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Called together by the American Legion, representatives of patriotic, labor and fraternal organizations joined last night in a mass meeting designed to raise public sentiment against recognition of Soviet Russia.

Representative Hamilton Fish of New York, President William Green of the American Federation of Labor and Dr. Edmund A.
Walsh, E. J. J., vice-president of Georgetown University, marshaled arguments against abandoning the non-recognition policy of the last 15 years.

Louis A. Johnson, national commander of the American Legion, who presided, read to the assembly a letter from Bainbridge Colby in which the latter asserted that the reasons which led to the non-recognition, declared first by him as Secretary of State under Woodrow Wilson, still held good.

Bainbridge Colby's letter.
Colby's letter maintained the original refusal had nothing to do with debt repudiation, Communism or any internal matters but "was predicted upon the fact that Russia was an enemy state."

"To concede recognition as a friend," the letter continued, "to a nation that protests she is not a friend, but on the contrary is dedicated to the overthrow of our institutions and sworn to conspire against our peace and security, is unthinkable."

Fish launched into his speech by saying that Raymond Moley, Assistant Secretary of State, "a member of the 'brain trust' together with Mr. Tugwell and Mordecai Ezekiel is reported, in yesterday's papers, as 'studying the question of recognition.'"

His List of Beneficiaries.
"He is seeking grounds," Fish said, "on which it could be shown that recognition would be especially beneficial to the United States. If he succeeds within the next eight weeks, the President will informally approach the Soviet Government with the question. I would like to inquire—beneficial to whom?
The Communists, Socialists, pink intellectuals and certain elements in Wall Street, including the Chase National Bank, unless the new management has had a change of heart."

The opposition of organized labor was presented by Green with the declaration:

"Labor holds that the preservation of the principles of self-government, the right to live unmolested without the threat and menace of world revolutions, is of greater value than the creation of material wealth or the enjoyment of profits gained through the sale of goods to a foreign nation."

Father Walsh Criticizes Smith.
Further, he declared illusive the hope that restoring diplomatic relations would bring any great upturn in trade with Russia. All of the speakers and Colby's letter agreed trading with Russia was an unpromising affair, and that recognition would not affect it.

Spirited criticism of Alfred E.
Smith, Senator William E. Borah,
George Bernard Shaw and others who have spoken for recognition was uttered by Father Walsh, who maintained recognition should be granted only on absolute proof of "Moscow's willingness to desist from the unethical, the illegal and utterly unacceptable hostility to non-Communist states which has been her undeniable practice heretofore."

"The avid test of Moscow's sincerity," he continued, "lies in her willingness or refusal to banish the Third International from her territory, disassociate herself from the offensive international conspiracy to which she is now partner and respect the inalienable sovereign rights of other nations and governments."

"That Venerable Comedian."
He referred to Shaw as "that venerable comedian" who in the recent New York speech "put on a one-ring circus again in which he gar-nulously committed intellectual suicide."

He spoke of Borah's "habitual disregard for the actualities" in an assertion during a Senate speech that since Stalin became Russian dictator there had been no attempt whatever on the part of the Soviet republic to interfere with American governmental affairs.

"Recognition of the Soviet Union," he said, "ultimately and basically is not a question of repudiated debts or confiscated property or Communists on soap boxes in Union Square, as that distinguished tribune of the people, Mr. Alfred E.
Smith visualizes the problem."

He maintained that the fundamental reason for non-recognition rested in Russia's not being "able and willing to perform its international obligations and conform to the usages accepted by the civilized nations of the world."

BOY, 15, KILLS BROTHER, 20

By the Associated Press.

TACOMA, Wash., April 18.—Robert Templeman, 15 years old, was held today as the slayer of his brother, Oliver, 20, in a quarrel at the farm home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Templeman, last night.

Sheriff Fremont Campbell said the brothers quarreled while driving cows home from pasture. The youthful said when the younger returned home, Robert went into the house and obtained his father's revolver, walked into the yard and shot his brother in the head.
Robert told him, the Sheriff said,
Oliver had "picked on" him.

L. F. LOREE DENOUNCES RAIL UNION RULES

Also Assails Long-and-Short-Haul Clauses of Federal Statute.

By the Associated Press.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 18.—L. F. Loree, president of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad, addressing the Chamber of Commerce here last night said the American railroads had three major adversaries—the selfish politician, unionized labor and the shipper.

Asserting that the carriers have waged a losing struggle against these forces for 60 years, he called for many reforms, particularly greater freedom from legislative restraints.

The railroads very definitely withdrew from politics with the passage of the interstate commerce act in 1887, Loree said, "and certainly they have suffered greatly since that action."

Discussing the long-and-short-haul clause of the interstate commerce act, under which the railroads are prohibited from charging more for an intermediate haul than for a longer haul over the same line, Loree said nothing in the law has been so "provocative of complaint and litigation." He continued:

"It has moved manufacturing industries from one location to another, destroyed important communities and built up speculative developments. It is a crude attempt to substitute the 'cost of service' method of rate-making for the commercial 'value of the service' method and injures both the railroads and their patrons."

Politics and Unwise Trackage. Less than 2 per cent of the freight mileage of the country was handled on 75,000 miles of main line track, said Loree in advocating the elimination of wasteful practices. He said that political considerations were largely responsible for the delay in obtaining permission to abandon useless trackage.

The accounting practices now prescribed by law were antiquated and restrictive, said Loree, who also flailed the "prodigality" which he found reflected in taxes. From 1900 to 1920 the railroad tax bill increased over 500 per cent, he said, although the increase in the investment in road and equipment was only 148 per cent.

"Monstrous as are these impositions, they do not cover all the activities of the politician," he continued.

Criticizes Labor Regulation. He criticized the full crew law, and said that the recent Interstate Commerce Commission order to apply automatic reverse gears to locomotives would involve an estimated expense of $12,000,000.

"Combinations of organized labor and time-serving politicians have been most injurious to industry," said Loree. "In the railroad service pressure of organized labor has covered the methods and scope of collective bargaining, the arbitrary restrictions of service, designed to make jobs; arbitrary classifications of work, designed to increase pay; duplicate payments for the one service, pay for work not performed, and the administration of the business."

"There are at least 151 of these arbitrary restrictions, and their aggregate effect is calculated to have increased the payroll some 23 per cent."

Railways Not Overtaxed, Says Major-General Ashburn.

By the Associated Press. LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 18.—Major-General T. Q. Ashburn, president of the Inland Waterways Corporation, told the Traffic Club of Louisville tonight that the appointment of a "rail dictator" over all the railroads of the United States might well be the answer to the problem of the railroads.

"The greatest railroad executives in America today have accepted the fact that rail transportation no longer enjoys a monopoly," Ashburn said in an address, "and they insist that their future policy should be to adapt themselves to changed conditions."

Ashburn told the Traffic Club that railroads, "being a quasi-public institution, are sufficiently taxed but not unjustly overtaxed."

Railways Appoint Committee to Consider Fare Reduction.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, April 18.—Unable to agree on proposals to reduce passenger fares as a means of increasing business, members of the Western Association of Railway Executives referred the question to a committee yesterday.

Five executives of Western lines and Harry G. Taylor, their commissioner, were named to consult with Eastern rail men on the practicability of asking the Interstate Commerce Commission to reduce fares to 3 1/4 cents a mile for coach travel and 3 cents for Pullman passengers.

Committee members named were Paul Shoup, vice-chairman of the Southern Pacific board, and Presidents Carl R. Gray of the Union Pacific, Fred W. Bargest of the Northwestern, Ralph Budd of the Burlington and L. W. Baldwin of the Missouri Pacific. They will go to Washington next week.

Dr. E. W. Bowditch, Osteopath, Dies. By the Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, April 18.—After an illness of more than two years, Dr. Robert W. Bowditch, former dean of two osteopathic colleges, died at his home here last night at the age of 61. He was appointed dean of the Los Angeles College of Osteopathy, resigning in 1917.

EMPLOYMENT LOSS IN MARCH

As Pay Cost Decreases and as Pay Cost Payroll Declines.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—A decrease in employment of 43 per cent for March as compared with February was reported today by the Labor Department. A decline of 43 per cent was reported in payroll.

The department which said that the decreases could be attributed largely to the banking holiday, fixed the employment index for March at 55.1, with 1925 as the base year of 100, while the payroll index was placed at 53.4 per cent.

Woman Dies of Burns.

WEBB CITY, Mo., April 18.—Mrs. Amanda M. Gilmore, 69 years old, burned when her dress was ignited at her farm home a week ago, died in a hospital here last night.

NEW BANKING BILL AWAITS APPROVAL OF WHITE HOUSE

Two Billion to Guarantee Deposits Provided in Measure Redrafted by Senate Group.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—With the new banking reform bill, embodying a two billion dollar provision for insuring Federal Reserve member bank deposits, drafted, the Senate Banking sub-committee made known last night it would withhold final action until the administration speaks.

The sub-committee was ready to report the revised measure, but decided instead to wait for a conference with Secretary of Treasury Woodin to obtain the administration's views.

In the face of conflicting reports about the Chief Executive's views on the insurance of deposits, the President last week indicated that he had not yet definitely decided what legislation he wanted.

The bill as drafted by the committee provides for creation of a $2,000,000,000 fund to insure deposits in Federal Reserve banks, with subscriptions to the fund from the Treasury, Reserve banks and member banks.

New Groups Admitted.
The committee decided to include provision for admitting mutual savings and banks of the Morris plan type to the Federal Reserve System and the insurance fund. These groups, with total deposits of about $10,000,000,000, have been excluded by State laws from subscribers to stock in the Reserve banks as other members do.

The completed bill is based upon the Glass bank bill of last session, which was designed chiefly to curb the use of Federal Reserve credit for speculation.

Virtually all major points in that bill have been retained, including a requirement that national banks divorce security affiliates and a provision for branch banking in permit State banks to have branches.

Several Additions Made.
Several important additions have been made, including a prohibition against interlocking directorates between banks and industrial corporations and against payment of interest on den. and deposits.

The latter feature is expected to compensate the banks to a large

LAWYER'S ACCUSER GETS YEAR IN JAIL

Pulvers, Witness Against Burt Kaemmerer, Convicted in Unrelated Embezzlement Case.

Harry Pulvers, principal State witness in a case in which Burt A. Kaemmerer, attorney, and three others are charged with attempting to obtain money by false pretenses in a fake automobile accident, was found guilty of embezzlement by a jury in Judge Butler's Court of Criminal Correction yesterday. Punishment was fixed at a year in the workhouse and a $100 fine, the maximum. He filed a motion for a new trial.

The embezzlement charge, which related to Pulvers' employment as a radiator salesman, bore no connection to the charges against Kaemmerer and the others, who were indicted.

Pulvers was found guilty of retaining $25 he collected from S. G. Alleman, 4919 Tholosan avenue, who had bought a radiator from the M. A. Wilsdorf Sheet Metal Co., 213 St. George street, Pulvers' former employers.

Pulvers admitted pocketing the $25 but that the company owed him money and that E. C. Wilsdorf, one of the owners, had told him he could keep the money if he collected it.

R. E. Jester, sales manager for the concern, denied the company owed Pulvers. The company introduced evidence a letter written by Pulvers after collecting the money, in which he said he would settle with the company for anything he owed them.

Kaemmerer, Jack C. Hobart, an employee in his law firm, and Arnold E. Hart, who has described himself as an "ambulance-chaser" for Kaemmerer, attended the trial but Dr. Samuel Wolff, the fourth man indicted with them, was absent.

The indictment is based on a faked accident last June 22, when Pulvers threw himself in front of a delivery truck in the alley behind the St. Louis Star Building. By prearrangement, members of the newspaper staff, Assistant Circuit Attorney McLaughlin and a detective watched the "accident." The law firm later represented Pulvers in an attempt to collect $143 damages and Dr. Wolff treated him for his injuries. The case against the four is being handled by the Circuit Attorney's office and the one against Pulvers was conducted by the Prosecuting Attorney.

FIRE CAPTAIN DEAD

CAPT. JOHN F. GAVIN.

On State Chiropractors' Board.
By the Associated Press.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 19.—Four members of the Missouri State Board of Chiropractors were named yesterday by Gov. Park. They are: J. F. Montana, St. Louis, to succeed H. J. Helmer, St. Louis; T. C. Oyler, Brookfield, to succeed P. E. Saxer, Bethany; L. H. Trotter, Kansas City, to succeed Thomas F. Maher, St. Louis; L. G. Geers, St. Louis, to succeed Lewis Litch, St. Louis.

CAPT. JOHN F. GAVIN DIES WHILE FIGHTING SMALL FIRE

Suddenly Stricken with Heart Attack; Member of Department
Since 1908.

Fire Capt. John F. Gavin, commander of Hook & Ladder Co. No. 20, died suddenly of heart disease while fighting a small blaze in a residence at 5312 Union boulevard at 6:15 p. m. yesterday. He was 57 years old.

Capt. Gavin was moving furniture to permit his men to get to a fire in which the blaze had started, when he collapsed. An inhalator was used in an effort to revive him. He was pronounced dead at Christian Hospital. The fire, in the home of Mrs. Margaret Devoto, caused $100 damage.

A member of the Fire Department since 1908, Capt. Gavin lived at 4443 Sessauer avenue. His widow, a son, Chauncey, and a daughter, Miss Lenora Gavin, survive.

Capt. Gavin had been under treatment for heart disease for the last three years.

Thomas Gavin, son of Capt. Gavin, was killed in an automobile collision at Whittier street and St. Louis avenue Nov. 6, 1930.

THEODORE HERMAN SLUPSKY IS DIVORCED BY THIRD WIFE

She Alleges He Was Close in Money Matters and Objected to Expense of Operation.

Theodore Herman Slupsky was made for divorce yesterday by his third wife, Mrs. Ruby Slupsky, who alleges general indignities. They were married at Clayton Jan. 4, 1932, and separated about two weeks ago.

Slupsky's first wife, Mrs. Norma Slupsky, twice divorced him, and he also was divorced by his second wife, Mrs. Rosalind Jacobs Slupsky, who obtained the decree Dec. 17, 1930.

In her petition, Mrs. Ruby Slupsky alleges he was cross and quarrelsome, close in money matters and required her to account for every penny. She also says he objected to the expenses of a surgical operation on her so that she became hysterical.

Slupsky is proprietor of the Motorist's Automobile Co., 1823 Locust street, and is a son of Jacob Slupsky, realty dealer. His wife, Mrs. Slupsky, obtained a divorce in June, 1932, and could not be reached.

COMMITTEE BUSY ON REVAMPING OF 5-DAY WEEK BILL

Votes to Take Up Monday
and Minimum Wage.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 19. — The House Labor Committee voted today in secret session to begin consideration on Monday of the five-day week bill with the minimum wage and production control amendments suggested by Secretary of Labor Perkins.

"It is our intention to make the hearings as short as possible so we can report the bill to the House for action," Chairman Connery said.

He announced that the opening hearings would be devoted to testimony by administration representatives, to be followed by leaders for organized labor and then by manufacturers.

Among those who would be asked to appear, Connery said, were Henry Ford, Gerard Swope of General Electric, Alfred P. Sloan Jr. of General Motors, Franklin Hobbs of the Textile Foundation, Henry L. Harman of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, William Green and Matthew Woll, representing the American Federation of Labor, and Michael McDonough and Charles Howard, representing, respectively, the building trades and the typographical unions.

Proposals Never Passed On.
"Realizing," said Connery, "that these proposals (for production control and a minimum wage) have never been passed on by either branch of Congress or by the public, the committee voted to have hearings to study them."

"At no time in my 10 years as a member of Congress have I known the persons concerned to show greater interest in a pending proposition. Economists and manufacturers have swamped me, and other committee members, with requests for time to discuss the proposals."

"The chief interest seems to enter in the proposals to establish a minimum wage and to prevent interstate transportation of goods made in violation of the minimum wage or maximum hours stipulations."

The bill before the committee would prevent interstate shipment of anything, except whole milk or cream, produced by workmen employed more than 30 hours in one week or more than six hours a day. "Extraordinary Need" Exception.

It would, however, let the Secretary of Labor permit work for 40 hours in one week if the manufacturer could show an "extraordinary need."

The production limitation section follows: "If it shall be found by the Secretary of Labor after due investigation that the operation of any plant or enterprise of the character described in section 1 of this act (mine, quarry, mill, cannery, workshop, factory or manufacturing establishment) is disturbing and preventing a fair balance of production in the industry involved and is bringing about overproduction or unfair competition in interstate commerce by reason of excessively long periods of operation, and thereby causing extraordinary hardship to other plants or enterprises in said industry, with consequent substantial injury to the general welfare, then and in that event the Secretary of Labor, upon publication of such finding, shall be authorized to specify a limitation that should be imposed upon the total hours of operation of said plant or plants or enterprises, so as to bring about a more equitable adjustment of production within said industry; and if after due notice of such specified limitation has been served upon those affected, further operations are carried on contrary to and in excess of the specified limitation, no articles or commodities produced or manufactured in said operation shall be shipped, transported or delivered in interstate commerce."

Minimum Wage Section.
The section for the establishment of a minimum wage says: "The Secretary of Labor shall have full power and authority to investigate and to ascertain the wages and hours of work of workers employed in any mine, quarry, mill, cannery, workshop, factory or manufacturing establishment, or any other place in which goods are produced, manufactured, or held for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce, and if the Secretary shall ascertain and publish a finding that because of the limitation of hours of work herein or otherwise provided, for any reason, a substantial number of the workers in any occupation in any such enterprises are not receiving a wage fairly and reasonably commensurate with the value of the services rendered or sufficient for the maintenance of a reasonable standard of living, the Secretary shall be authorized, and it shall be his duty, to appoint a wage board to determine and to recommend minimum fair wage rates for such workers. Such a wage board shall be composed of an equal number of representatives of (1) the employers and (2) the employees, respectively interested, and (3) the disinterested public."

This wage board would have the right to subpoena witnesses and evidence, and the Secretary would have the right to send inspectors into plants.

BROWNS LOSE FIRST GAME ON ROAD TO WHITE SOX, 3 TO 0

Rosenbloom Favored to Outpoint Levandowski Tonight

Rogers Hornsby About Ready for Test in Infield

ROGERS HORNSBY is about ready for his trial as a candidate for a job in the Cardinals infield. The Rajah worked out with the Browns while the Redbirds were on the road, and reported steady improvement in the condition of the tendon in his right leg, which handicapped him during the spring training season.

"Hornsby is virtually free from discomfort in the leg, and the improvement in his condition leads him to believe that he is ready to test himself in the infield," Dr. Robert Hyland, the club surgeon, told the Post-Dispatch this morning.

It will be a great break for the Cards if Hornsby can make the grade soon. The team needs base hits, and Hornsby, despite his long service, still is a great hitter. If his leg proves sound in practice, Manager Street won't waste any time in rearranging his lineup, putting Hornsby at second on a moving Frisch to third.

BOUT AT ARENA MICHIGAN BOY'S SECOND WITH TITLEHOLDER

Charles Belanger, Detroit (184), vs. Chick Hader, St. Louis (167). 10 rounds.

Johnny Miles, St. Louis (173), vs. Harold Murphy, Springfield, Mo. (180). 8 rounds.

Joe Huff, St. Louis (150), vs. Nick Beglio, Merritt, Ill. (150). 8 rounds.

Joe Parks, St. Louis (160), vs. Steve Harris, St. Louis (165). 4 rounds.

Place—The Arena, 5700 Oakland avenue. Starting time first bout 8:30 p. m. Admission prices: 10 cents to $2.50.

By W. J. McGoogan.

Martin Levandowski, Grand Rapids, Mich. Pole will attempt to square accounts with Maxie Rosenbloom, light heavyweight champion of the world, in a 10-round bout at the Arena tonight. Rosenbloom's title will not be at stake as the men are scheduled to come into the ring at 177 pounds, two pounds over the championship limit.

But Rosenbloom outpointed Levandowski in a hard 10-round bout at Grand Rapids last summer and Martin wants to even the score. He has been successful in several other similar cases. Four boxers who defeated Levandowski the first time they met he won from in return bouts.

Ring followers, who have watched the two in workouts at the National Athletic Gymnasium here the last few days, do not think very highly of Levandowski's chances, however. He appears too slow for the agile Rosenbloom and boxing fans think that Martin will catch a great number of Rosenbloom's slapping punches tonight and be decisively outpointed.

Rosenbloom has twice successfully defended his claim to the 175-pound title since he last appeared here when he outpointed Al Smith. He has won from Adolph Heuser and scored a technical knockout over Bob Godwin. These two victories caused the National Boxing Association to extend recognition as champion to Rosenbloom which it had withheld for some time claiming that Maxie had not defended his title in the specified time.

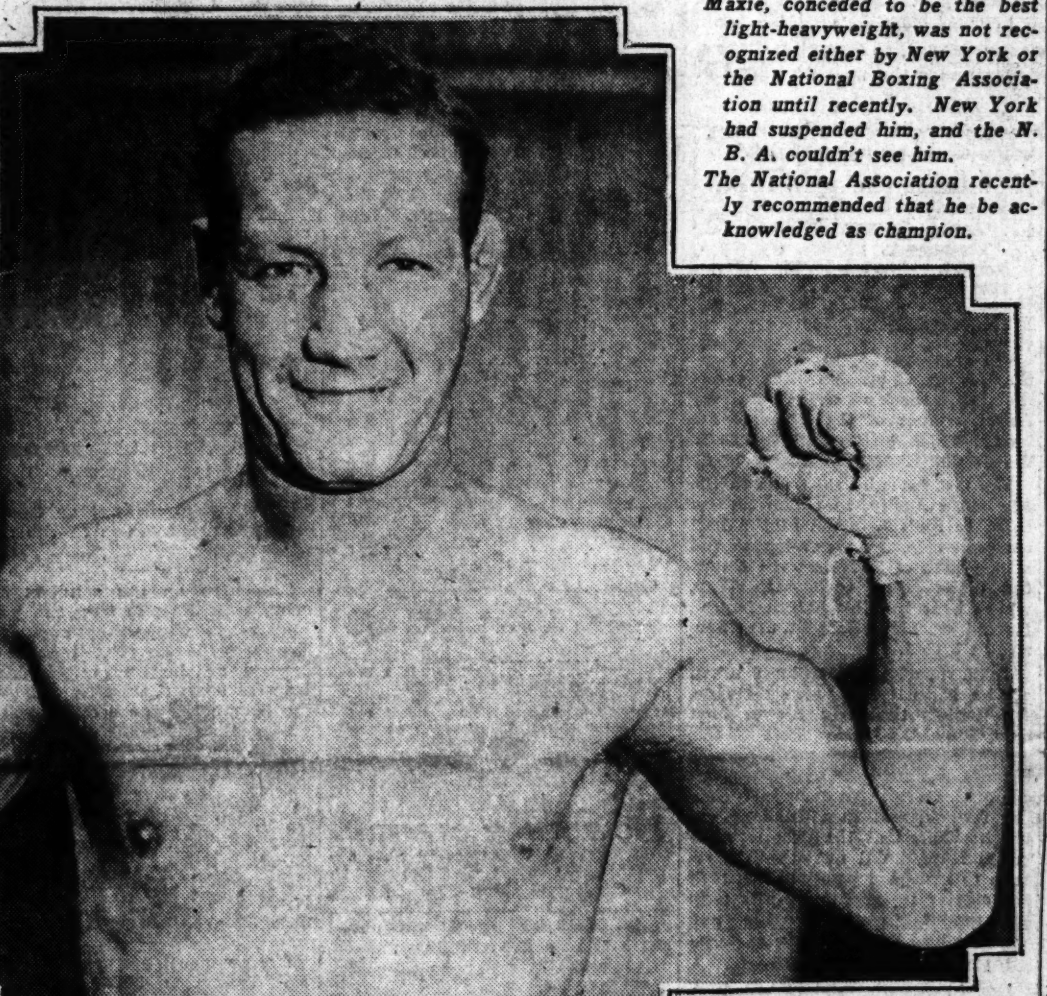

The Rosenbloom-Levandowski

We Have With Us Today—Maxie Rosenbloom, at Last a Recognized Champion

Rosenbloom battles Martin Levandowski at the Arena tonight

Fans who have been debating whether Maxie punches or slaps can have another peek at his style and decide for themselves.

High fistic authorities say his style does not conform to the rules.

Maxie, conceded to be the best light-heavyweight, was not recognized either by New York or the National Boxing Association until recently. New York had suspended him, and the N. B. A. couldn't see him. The National Association recently recommended that he be acknowledged as champion.

DEAN TO PITCH MARTIN AT THIRD AS CARDS OPEN HERE TOMORROW

By J. Roy Stockton.

Dirzy Dean will pitch for the Cardinals tomorrow when they open their home season by starting a three-game series with the Cubs. Manager Gabby Street announced at Sportsman's Park today following a workout of the Redbirds.

Dean plans to start Halahan on Friday and Carleton, Saturday, with Walker and Vance working in the double-header against the Pirates, Sunday.

Guy Bush is expected to be the Cardinals' opponent in tomorrow's game.

Rogers Hornsby worked out and said he felt ready to play regularly, but Manager Street decided he has no chance on putting Hornsby back in the boxers' prematurity, and as a result, Rog will remain on the sidelines for several days.

Martin will start at third base tomorrow, with Adams at short-

PAWSON WINS MARATHON IN RECORD TIME

By the Associated Press.

BOSTON, April 19.—Leslie Pawson, young Pawtucket (R. I.) runner, today won the thirty-seventh annual Boston Athletic Association marathon.

Pawson galloped home with a smile on his face in 2 hours 31 minutes and 13.5 seconds, breaking the record set by Johnny Miles of Nova Scotia in 1929. Miles' time was 2 hours 33 minutes 4.5 seconds.

The Rhode Islander was far ahead of the field and was greeted by close to 15,000 fans at the finish line. He was crowned with a laurel wreath by the Grecian Tradition Society and also was given a bronze medal.

Pawson is one of the younger group of Marathoners. He has won several road races in this vicinity since the season opened and was considered a pre-race favorite.

Not only did Pawson's time better that of Miles for the race but it also bettered the Olympic record of 2 hours, 32 minutes, 35.4 seconds set by Hannes Kolehmainen at Antwerp in 1920.

Dave Komonen of the Monarch A. C. of Toronto was second, in 2:36:27.25.

Paul de Bruyn, last year's winner of the race, was forced to quit near the finish and was brought to the clubhouse in an automobile.

Dick Wilding of Toronto was third. Wilding's time was 2:38:35.

Harold Webster of Hamilton, Ont., was fourth in 2:38:31.35.

Willie Kyronen of the Finnish-American A. C. of New York, placed home fifth. His time was 2:39:50.

"Whitely" Michelsen, another veteran racer, came in sixth.

Michelsen's time was 2:40:27.

Walter Hornby of Hamilton, Ont., who had led a good part of the race, came in seventh. His time was 2:41:32.5.

Clarence Demar, the veteran of many races and the winner of seven of the B. A. A.'s runs, came in eighth and just ahead Johnny Degloria of Albany, N. Y., out of eighth place. Demar's time was 2:43:18.5 and Degloria's, 2:43:20.

Women's Title Swimming Meet To Start Today

By the Associated Press.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 19.—Thirty of the leading women swimmers of the United States and Canada today were ready for the opening of the four-day senior National A. A. U. swimming championship meet tonight in the pool of the Buffalo Athletic Club.

Nine championships will be decided and seven new champions will be crowned as only Dorothy Poynton of Los Angeles, low board diver champion, and the medley relay team of the Women's Swimming Association of New York City will defend their titles.

Of the Post-Dispatch Sport Staff.

CHICAGO, April 19.—The Browns lost to the Chicago White Sox this afternoon in the first game of a series of three. It was the home opening for the White Sox.

The score was 3 to 0.

Ceremonies were brief with State Attorney Thomas J. Courtney throwing out the first ball.

It rained this morning and though the sun was shining at game time the rain was sufficient to ruin the preparations of the crowd which numbered not more than 10,000.

The umpires were Vangraffen and Owens.

The game:

FIRST INNING—BROWNS—Scharin walked. West hit in front of the plate and was thrown out by Grube. Reynolds flied to Kress. Campbell grounded to Hayes.

WHITE SOX—Hayes doubled past third. Coffman threw out Haas. Hayes going to third. Fosses walked. Simmons popped to Scharin. Appling was safe on a bunt by Grube. Grube singled to left. Fosses stopped at second. Kress flied to West.

ONE RUN—BROWNS—Browns popped to Grube in front of the plate. Melillo popped to Appling. Levy lined to Lyons.

WHITE SOX—Coffman threw out Dykes. Grube doubled past third. Grube flied to West. Hayes was out the same way.

THIRD INNING—BROWNS—Scharin singled to left. Coffman bunted but forced Ferrell. Lyons to Appling. Scharin popped to Fosses. West singled to right. Coffman stopping at second. Lyons threw out Reynolds.

WHITE SOX—Hayes doubled past first. Fosses scored. Haas doubled past first. But was out trying for second. Campbell to Lyons. Grube flied to West. Appling popped to Hayes.

FOURTH INNING—BROWNS—Campbell was called out on strikes. Burns popped to Hayes. Melillo reached second when Appling walked and he in short left. Levy scored to Hayes.

WHITE SOX—Kress bunted and was thrown out by Ferrell. Dykes was hit by a pitched ball. Dykes was out stealing. Grube to Melillo. Grube singled to left. Coffman threw out Lyons.

SIXTH INNING—BROWNS—Scharin grounded to Appling. Dykes threw out Coffman. Scharin flied to Dykes.

WHITE SOX—Grube went far into right center for a remarkable running catch of Hayes line drive. Haas grounded to Burns. Coffman threw out Fosses.

SIXTH INNING—BROWNS—Campbell flied to Dykes. Reynolds struck out. Campbell walked. Grube flied to Campbell. Dykes flied to Kress. Grube batted for Coffman and flied to Haas.

SEVENTH INNING—Grube went in to pitch for the Browns. Hayes flied to West. Burns flied to West. ONE RUN.

WHITE SOX—Campbell flied to West. Fosses flied to West. ONE RUN.

EIGHTH INNING—BROWNS—Scharin flied to Appling. Dykes flied to Kress. Reynolds popped to Hayes.

WHITE SOX—Kress struck out. Dykes walked. Grube flied to Campbell. Dykes was out stealing. Ferrell to Melillo.

NINTH INNING—The Browns failed to score.

"The Great" Shires Bought by Cards

Purchase of Arthur "The Great" Shires was announced this afternoon by the Cardinal office. Shires was bought from the Boston Braves.

Announcement of the deal by the Cardinals came on top of a statement by Shires in Boston that he would quit the game and go into boxing for a career. He had been reported sold to Dan Howley's Toronto team of the International League and that he would have to "go down the river" probably prompted the "great one's" outburst.

No information as to the consideration or intentions as to use of Shires was forthcoming from Redbird headquarters.

First base has been Shires' position. The Cardinals still have Jimmy Collins and Pat Crawford to play that bag.

WRAV'S COLUMN

Rough on Jimmy.

JIMMY McLARNIN, who has been knocking at the championship door for about eight or nine years, in one class or another, is to try for a boxing title May 20 at Los Angeles. He meets young ... on that date.

Jimmy apparently picked a lemon—one that may prove a very sour investment. Young Corbett, a south-paw fighter, is probably the most difficult of all the welterweights to beat. He takes them all on in his home ballpark and on one he is eliminated.

McLARNIN.

McLarnin probably has passed his peak, although he has not done much hard fighting of late months. Young Corbett is not a spectacular fighter, according to accounts. But he is hard to hit and makes the other fellows look bad. He does not win decisively ### or in a spectacular manner. But thus far none has been found able to treat him roughly or show him up.

McLARNIN is very popular in the East. This writer has never seen him fight; and yet, basing opinion on his record, we have never been able to see true greatness in McLarnin. In every class in which he has fought he has encountered a setback to his hopes. In the smaller division Buddy Taylor beat him three times. Johnny Farr and Joe Snell also trimmed him. As a lightweight, Sammy Mandell gave him a lesson. Welterweight Billy Petrolle at his best gave him a licking. Ray Miller knocked him out. Not so hot as to deserve prolonged cheers.

Now, at the tail end of his career, Jimmy is seeking a championship. Well, it has been done. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he won a crown. Jack Britton was 34 when he last battered his way to the top. Why not Jimmy?

Perhaps the answer is that

CENTRAL CATHOLIC NINE BEATS EAST ST. LOUIS

Central Catholic High School's baseball team of East St. Louis got off to a flying start in the three-game series to decide the championship of East St. Louis high schools yesterday afternoon at the Jones Park, defeating East St. Louis High, 10 to 0.

Central scored its first tally in their half of the first inning and superiority by sweeping all three games. In the first game, Central scored four more runs than the East St. Louis team, 7 to 4. In the second game, Central scored three of Central's runs. The winners made eight hits off Murphy and Stephens.

SOLDAN'S JUNIOR AND MIDGET SQUADS WIN

Soldan High School's junior and midget track teams have victories to their credit today after dual meets of yesterday afternoon. The Soldan juniors defeated East St. Louis High School's junior team, 74 to 21, and the Soldan midgets triumphed over McKinley High's midgets, 40 to 15.

Soldan's juniors displayed their superiority by sweeping all three places in the 50-yard dash, 120-yard hurdles, high jump, pole vault, and shot put. Levy, Soldan, was high scorer in the midget meet with 17½ points.

TODAY'S DAVIS CUP TEAM TO OPPOSE MEXICO, MAY 1

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 18.—The United States Lawn Tennis Association has nominated Wilmer Allison, George Lott and John Van Ryn to represent this country against Mexico in the first round of North American zone Davis Cup competition.

Allison, ranked No. 2 nationally, and Sutter, No. 3, probably will play singles, with Lott and Van Ryn taking care of the doubles. Allison, Van Ryn and Lott are seasoned internationalists, but Sutter only previous experience in Davis Cup play was in 1931 when he was one of the singles matches against Argentina in the American zone finals.

The matches will be played in Mexico City May 5, 6 and 7. Sutter, Lott and Van Ryn will leave White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where they are playing this week in the Mason and Dixon tournament, on Monday and will be joined by Allison at Houston. The team will arrive in Mexico City April 21.

BILLIKEN SQUAD RESUMES SPRING FOOTBALL WORK

A renewed vigor was evident among coaches and players as the St. Louis University spring football squad continued yesterday where activities were dropped a week ago for the annual spring vacation.

Head Coach Charles Walsh concentrated his efforts on the backfield. The Billiken ball carriers for next season must be culled from among 25 candidates.

Backfield men were juggled around as they went through a stiff drill on group work, consisting of practice on the shift, blocking and handling the ball. Veterans from last year's eleven and a new crop of backs give the Billiken promise of several crack combinations next fall. Fullbacks who shone yesterday were Arnold Arenz, Jim Lewis, Jim Damron and Carl Wood, the latter pair being freshmen.

Coach Walsh anticipates stiff competition among the halfbacks during the spring scrimmages on the basis of the quality and quantity of material for this position. Carl Kane, Tom Hurley, Tom Howland, Manuel and Butch Rapp are among the leaders at this stage.

Quarterbacks calling signals for yesterday's groups, who drove at the end candidates for more than an hour, were Joe Bassett and Bud Feldman, a pair of junior signal callers.

During the workout, as Coach Walsh pointed out the qualifications of a good backfield man to his candidates, a rabbit hopped over the stadium fence, and at the sight of the spectacle thereon, hastened to the first exit. "There's the way I want you halfbacks to run next fall—like a scared rabbit," the Billiken coach remarked, having in mind the abilities of LaFayette Schumacher and McCoolle, three graduating backfield men.

The Billiken spring squad will be divided into teams before the end of the week in preparation for the annual series of games which will be held on Saturday afternoons until the drill sessions are completed, May 13.

BORDLEY CONTEMPT CITATIONS NOT DEAD

Supreme Court Rules Successor of Retired Judge Rutledge May Revive Them.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 19.—The Missouri Supreme Court today ruled that Division No. 4 of St. Louis Circuit Court could proceed with a contempt of court citation issued by former Circuit Judge Charles W. Rutledge against five St. Louis attorneys who were defense counsel in a suit contesting the will of Mrs. Blanche Bordley, despite the retirement of Judge Rutledge from the bench.

The Supreme Court discharged a preliminary rule of prohibition it issued Dec. 17, restraining Judge Rutledge from taking any action on his citation.

The Court ruled that, while a writ of prohibition might be invoked to prevent a contempt proceeding in a "proper case," this particular proceeding did not fall within that class. The distinction was not explained in the opinion.

The effect of the ruling is to permit Judge Rutledge's successor in Division No. 4 to revive the proceeding if he desires. Judge Rutledge's term expired last Dec. 31. Attorneys cited by Judge Rutledge to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court, based on their charges of prejudice and partiality on the part of the judge in a motion they filed for a new trial, were Frank A. Thompson, Samuel A. Mitchell and Richmond C. Coburn, counsel for the Mercantile-Commerce Bank and Trust Co. administrator and trustee of the Bordley will; and Ernest A. Green and Albert Chandler, counsel for two beneficiaries under the will.

The attorneys charged that Judge Rutledge had prejudiced the case by ordering them to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt instead of to show cause why they should not be adjudged in contempt of court.

"The question of prejudice is eliminated by the retirement of the respondent" (Judge Rutledge), said Chief Justice Ernest S. Gantt, who wrote the opinion. "In this situation we think the Circuit Court should be permitted to proceed with the case."

Judge Gantt said that, under the general rule, Circuit Courts were, in the first instance, vested with the power to decide questions of contempt, subject to a right of review under an application for a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Ryan Refuses to Discuss His Probable Action.

Circuit Judge Ryan, who succeeded Judge Rutledge in Division No. 4, declined to discuss his possible procedure in advance of official notification of the ruling of the Supreme Court.

STOLEN 'GUY MANNERING' MANUSCRIPT IS RETURNED

No Questions Asked and No Payments Made, Director of Library Says.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The first volume of Sir Walter Scott's manuscript of "Guy Mannering," stolen last October from an exhibition at Columbia University, has been returned to the Pierpont Morgan Memorial Library, adjoining the Morgan town house on Thirty-eighth street.

Miss Belle da Costa Greene, director of the Morgan Library, gave the few known facts of the manuscript's return: A man went to the J. P. Morgan banking house in Wall street last Friday, saw Morgan and asked if the banker were willing to take the manuscript back on a basis of no questions asked and no payments made. Morgan agreed. "The volume was returned. In Avery Hall, at Columbia, the manuscript was placed on exhibition last Oct. 6, along with its two companion volumes and manuscripts of "Ivanhoe" and "Waverley." Guards were on duty on the floor during the open hours and about the building at night. On Oct. 24, an assistant librarian noticed the first volume of "Guy Mannering" was missing. The lock on the case had been tampered with.

COURT HEARS TESTIMONY ON THOMASSON'S RESIDENCE

Widow Seeks to Have Claim to $500,000 of Property Tried in Little Rock, Ark.

Presentation of testimony to establish that Hugh W. Thomasson, elderly real estate owner who died Jan. 28, at Little Rock, Ark., was a resident of that city was resumed today before Federal Judge Davis.

Evidence offered was similar to that presented in a 90-day hearing before Circuit Judge Hoffmeister, which concluded with a jury verdict that Thomasson was a St. Louisan. Judge Davis limited the hearing, which will close today, to two days.

Attorneys for Thomasson's relatives presented their case yesterday, introducing evidence to show that he was mentally incapable of changing his residence from St. Louis. Mrs. Grace Carolyn Thomasson, his young widow, who claims real estate here valued at more than $500,000, is seeking to have her suit tried at Little Rock.

Mayor John P. O'Brien Chosen as Successor; Former Governor Smith Re-Elected.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Within a few hours after James J. Walker's marriage in France yesterday, Tammany Hall announced that the former Mayor had been replaced as a sache.

In announcing the election of Mayor John P. O'Brien to succeed Walker, the secretary of Tammany said a cable had been received from the former Mayor asking that his name not be submitted for election when his term expired, which it did yesterday. Former Gov. Alfred E. Smith was among those re-elected.

MINNESOTA AID VOTED AFTER THREAT TO CONFISCATE WEALTH

Gov. Olson Demands Met by Legislature's Approval of $1,500,000 for Relief.

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 19.—Gov. Olson, who last week threatened martial law and confiscation of wealth, if necessary, to aid the needy, said yesterday he was satisfied with action of the Legislature in providing relief.

He added, however, he would carry out his threat should the "situation ever become serious enough to warrant this action." While doubting it ever would be necessary, he said "no one can foresee what the future will bring." Should such action be taken, receipts would be given by the State in return for wealth it took over, he asserted. These could be submitted to the Legislature as claims against the State.

NEW ECONOMIC PACT WITH CUBA BEING CONSIDERED

Island's Plight With Roosevelt and State Department.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Action of the White House and State Department was directed yesterday to Cuba's political and economic plight as the administration sought first-hand information of the situation between President Machado, enemies of his Government.

Cintas of Cuba participated in discussions in which Ambassador Cintas discussed that an economic agreement with the island may be of the first to be reached in series of conversations with various nations in Washington.

After an hour's conference, President Roosevelt in the Executive office, Cintas told newspapermen that the President had revealed a greater knowledge of Cuban affairs than he himself. The Envoy said the conversation had been general, and did not touch on the naming of a new American Ambassador to Cuba, which is expected momentarily. He said he blamed poverty and unemployment in Cuba for recent socialist and terrorism marking the political struggle.

"Cuba is having a very difficult time," he said, adding: "President Roosevelt's attitude toward Cuba is very kind."

Visits State Department.

Leaving the White House, Ambassador Cintas crossed the street to the State Department, where he remained another hour with Assistant Secretary Sumner Welles, who is expected soon to take charge of Latin American affairs, successor Assistant Secretary Francis W. Welles later talked with the President. As he left the White House, he was asked if any intervention Cuban affairs was contemplated.

"Most decidedly not," he replied. Ambassador Cintas' remark President Roosevelt knew about Cuba than he himself did not a meaningless compliance since the President, even before inauguration, kept himself informed on Cuban affairs from widely ranging sources.

Yesterday he obtained further-to-date reports from Charles Taussig, American Molasses Officer and authority on Cuba. He visited the island last week and made a detailed report to Roosevelt at Warm Springs, Ga. Undersecretary William Phillips said the State Department was kept informed regularly on Cuban political developments by Ward L. Reed, acting Charge d'affaires in Havana. He would say what instructions had been to the embassy.

The administration is reported to be studying a sugar quota plan to improve and stabilize in this country with the economic rehabilitation of Cuba as a duty.

Leaving Welles' office, Ambassador Cintas said the arrangement by which Cuban exports of sugar to the United States would be discussed. "Tentative considered," he added, was a plan under which a quantity of sugar, probably less than 200,000 tons, would be admitted free duty.

He told of Cuban laborers being but $8 a month for their work in the sugar fields, and said political disorders were an outcome of this condition.

MAN POSING AS EXAMINER GETS $8000 IN BANK MONEY

Lure Indiana Cashier Into Office, Then Drive to Depository.

By the Associated Press.

SYRACUSE, Ind., April 19.—Miller, cashier of the Bank of Syracuse, received a telephone call yesterday morning. A man said: "I am a bank examiner from the Banking Department. My automobile broke down in the country. I am bogged down. Can you right out and get me?"

Miller jumped into his automobile and drove to the man's assistance. The man drew a pistol, drove Miller off the road into a field, got into a tree, got into the car and drove to the bank.

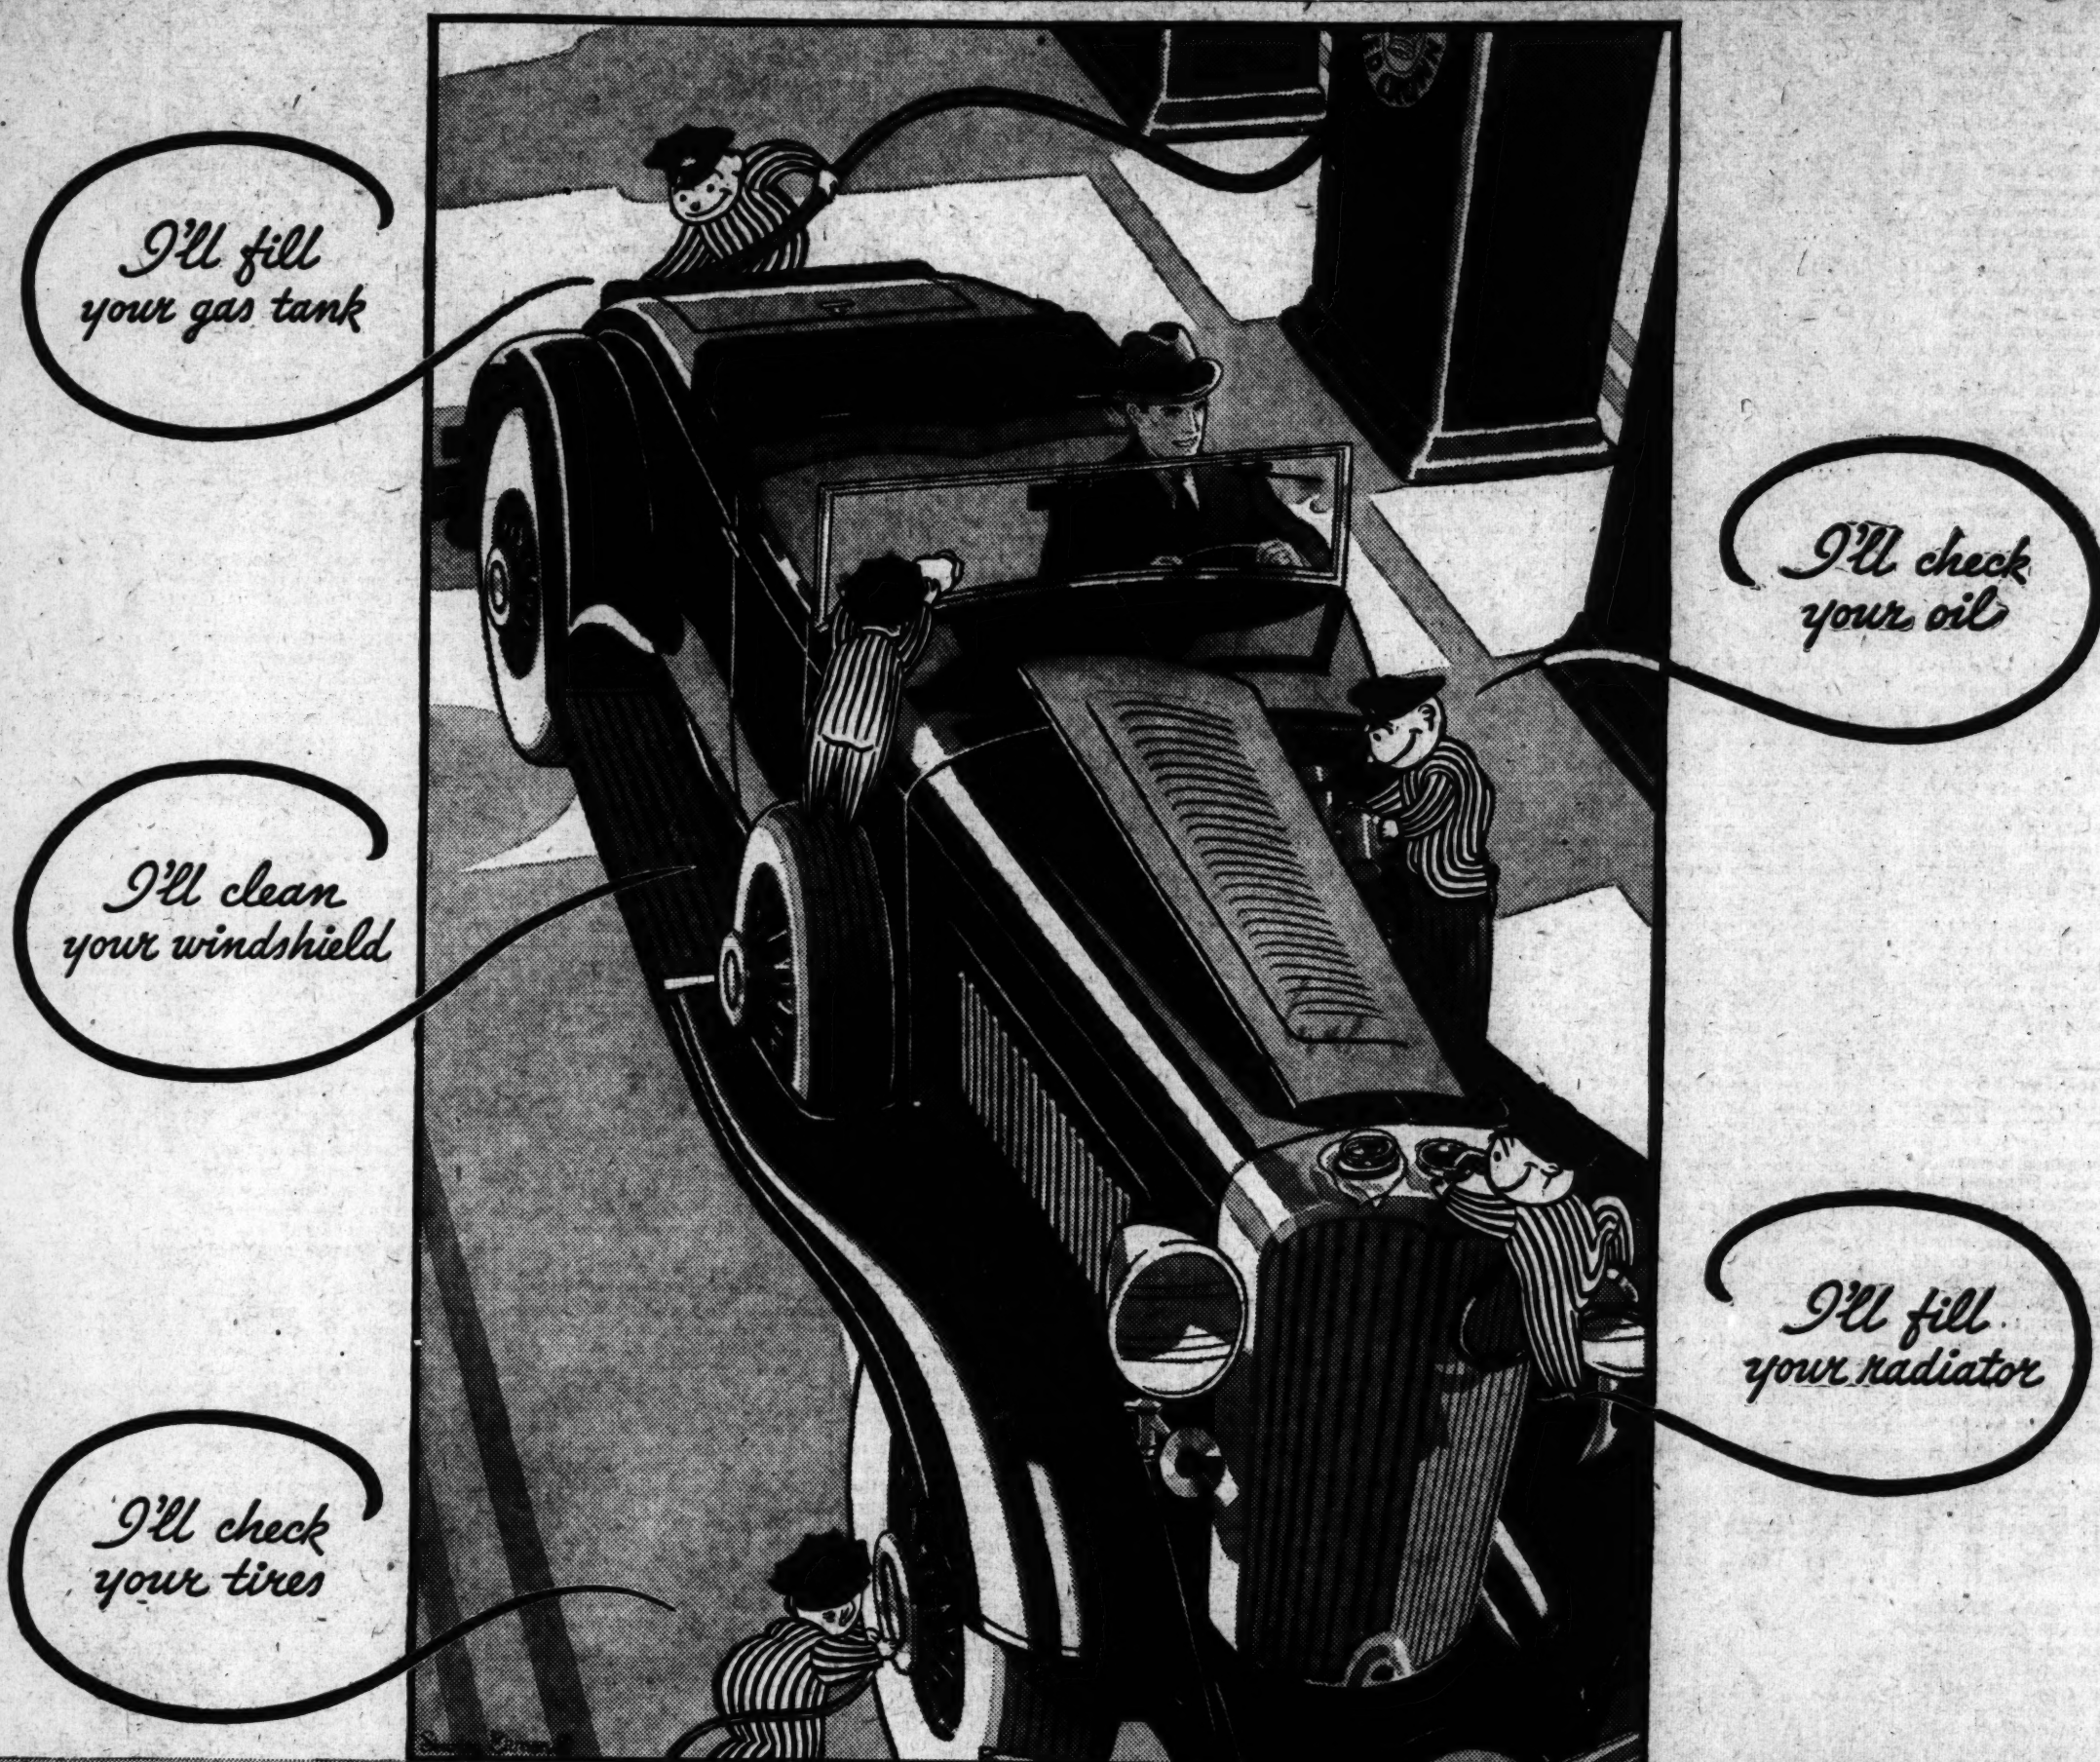

Charles Bachman and Mrs. Schleeter, assistant cashiers, one customer, were in the bank when the man entered. He copied him as the examiner let him in as the cashier's employee. The man waited until the cashier left the bank, then pulled a revolver. "Go into the vault and get me the money," he demanded, and fled with about $8,000.

GAIN IN COMMODITY

First Advance in Wholesale Prices Since Last September.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The first advance since last September was reported yesterday by the Labor Department for the index number of wholesale commodity prices from February to March.

The gain was computed by the bureau of Labor statistics by comparing the index for March with the index number for February. The index for March was 100. The index for February was 99.8.

ILLINOIS SENATE PUTS OFF REPEAL CONVENTION FOR YEAR

Disregards the Wishes of Gov. Horn for First Time in Session.

By the Associated Press.
 SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 19.—The Senate today disregarded the wishes of Gov. Horn, refused to pass a bill for a convention next year to vote on prohibition repeal and then approved amendments providing for the convention next year. It was the first time the Senate, controlled by a big Democratic majority, had voted against the Governor's desires.

If the bill is enacted in its present form, 50 delegates-at-large will be elected at the April (1934) primary to decide whether Illinois should ratify the national anti-prohibition amendment. The State convention would be held here on May 10, 1934.

With many downstate Democrats and some Republicans sitting silent the Senate failed to pass the bill which would provide for naming of delegates at the June 5 judicial election, with a convention July 10.

Senator Harold G. Ward, Chicago Democrat, moved that the roll call be suspended before the Undersecretary William Phillips said the State Department was being kept informed regularly on Cuban political developments by Edward L. Reed, acting Charge d'Affaires in Havana. He would not say what instructions had been sent to the embassy.

The administration is reported to be studying a sugar quota allotment plan to improve and stabilize prices in this country with the economic rehabilitation of Cuba as a corollary.

Leaving Welles' office, Ambassador Cintas said the arrangement by which Cuban exports of sugar to the United States would be facilitated was discussed. Tentatively considered, he added, was a plan under which a quantity of Cuban sugar, probably less than 2,000,000 tons, would be admitted free of duty.

NORMAL TIMES NOT TOO FAR AWAY, SCHWAB SAYS
 "We Are All in a Happier Frame of Mind," He Tells Pennsylvania Society.

By the Associated Press.
 NEW YORK, April 19.—Charles K. Schwab, chairman of the board of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, told the Pennsylvania Society at its annual luncheon yesterday that he looked "for the return of normal times not too far away."

"I can say that while business has not materially improved, we are all in a happier frame of mind. Whether we are getting used to the present situation or whether there is a change of sentiment doesn't matter, for we are feeling better."

Schwab said he was eager to second the statement made by Myron Taylor, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, who predicted an upswing.

"We have reached the bottom of the worst depression we have ever experienced in this country," he said. "We have built a firmer foundation for recovery. Sometimes I think we've gone through this time without knowing just what it is. But we will now have a time of great happiness."

NEW LAW TO FIX RATIO OF JEWS IN GERMAN SCHOOLS

Pending Edict Will Limit Attendance Proportionately to Percentage in Entire Population.

By the Associated Press.
 BERLIN, April 19.—Pursuant to the recently published Prussian students' code, Dr. Wilhelm Frick, National Socialist Minister of the Interior, has drafted a Federal law regulating the attendance of Jews at all German universities and other institutions of learning, according to the ratio of Jews in the entire population.

Final action on this, however, was postponed today until Saturday because Chancellor Hitler is attending a birthday celebration in Bavaria, awaiting the report of Capt. Hermann Goering on his visits with Premier Mussolini and the Pope in Rome.

Hitler's newspaper, Völkischer Beobachter, said the action was being taken to save the universities from "excessive foreign control."

Germany has already commenced a jubilation celebration of the forty-fourth birthday tomorrow of Chancellor Hitler. Preliminary exercises began last night and the return of Cabinet members to duty, including Vice Chancellor von Papen and Capt. Goering, who have been in Italy, will start the fête in earnest.

Thousands of Hitler's followers have collected money from street crowds for a fund which will be distributed among the needy tomorrow. All kinds of Hitler memorabilia have appeared, although the Government's order to avoid exaggerated "nonsense" has considerably reduced the number of such trinkets.

Opera houses in Berlin and other cities have been ordered to stop putting up and making arrangements for holding special exercises.

Hitler will deliver an address tomorrow in which he will explain his four-year plan for workers and farmers. It has been two months since he last addressed the Reichstag, the German parliament, in his capacity as the Chancellorship, promised this program for the majority support he won in the elections a month later. He has made no disclosure of the plan since then.

Five persons were sentenced yesterday to terms of imprisonment for spreading "atrocity" stories against the National Socialists.

Police said they had uncovered a Communist news agency which was said to have been supplying foreign correspondents with news letters and pictures of alleged maltreatment of several arrested persons.

FARM BOARD SELLS LAST OF MAY WHEAT FUTURES
 Other Holdings Small and Cotton Is Also Disposed Of.

By the Associated Press.
 WASHINGTON, April 19.—Henry Morgenthau Jr. has nearly the first goal he set for himself when he became farm board chairman. Months ago he had set the goal of disposing of the "farm commodity stabilization of business."

He announced after the close of the market yesterday that the board is "entirely out" of May wheat futures, that its holdings of other futures are "small" and that it intends to dispose of these within a short time.

It no longer holds cash wheat except amounts which have been ordered turned over to the Red Cross, he said, and the relief organization has obtained possession of most of its holdings. The relief organization expects to complete the transfer of the last sales late in the summer.

DR. J. A. CAMPBELL FUNERAL TO BE AT 3 P. M. TOMORROW

Service for 86-Year-Old Oculist at Second Presbyterian Church; Burial in Bellefontaine Cemetery.

Funeral services for Dr. James A. Campbell, oldest practicing oculist in the city, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the chapel of Second Presbyterian Church, Taylor avenue and Westminster place. Burial will be in Bellefontaine Cemetery.

Dr. Campbell, 86 years old, died suddenly yesterday of heart disease after having collapsed in a washroom in the Equitable Building, where he had his office. Despite his advanced years he had been active in his practice and visited his office, which he had maintained here for 44 years, every morning.

He was a graduate of the old Homeopathic Medical College of Missouri and its president for 10 years, and was a charter member of the American College of Surgeons. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Eva Burden Campbell, in whom he was married in 1880; two sons, Roy A. and Ralph E. Campbell, and a daughter, Majorie Evelyn Campbell.

INQUIRY TO BEGIN TOMORROW IN JURY LIST MISHANDLING
 Investigation Follows Delivery to Law Office by Negro Court-House Messenger.

The grand jury's inquiry into delivery of petit jury lists, ordered recently by Circuit Judge Bader, will begin at tomorrow afternoon's session.

Officials connected with the selection and handling of jurors have been summoned for tomorrow, to tell as to the proper procedure, under the law and the rules of the Circuit Court, criminal division, in handling the jury lists.

Later testimony will be sought as to the recent mishandling of such lists by Henry West, Negro Court-house messenger, who took them to the law office and left them with the stenographer. The law office, in the Missouri Pacific Annex Building, was occupied by Verne H. Lacy, white writer, Harry White, Irwin White and H. Gordon Cohen. Lacy and the White brothers have denied knowing anything about the jury lists.

JAPANESE BOMB CITY 100 MILES FROM TIENTSIN

Planes and Artillery Join in Attack on Lwanchow—Troops Reported to Be Crossing River.

By the Associated Press.
 TIENTSIN, China, April 19.—Japanese bombing planes and artillery are reported to be attacking Lwanchow, largest city between Chinwangtao and Tientsin, in the North China coast area.

The Chinese military headquarters for operations in that region is there. The fall of Lwanchow would considerably facilitate a Japanese advance on Tientsin, the international commercial center, with one of the largest American colonies in China. Lwanchow is about 100 miles from Tientsin.

Japanese planes are reported to be bombing the southern outskirts of the city, while big guns pour shells into it from the north bank of the Lwan River. Earlier reports said a Chinese force had halted an attempt of Japanese troops to cross the Lwan with machine-gun fire.

The flight of Chinese troops to Tangshan, farther southwest along the railroad leading to Tientsin and Peiping, began before the main attack.

Change of Japanese Plans.
 When the Japanese first started their push into the undisputed Chinese territory south of the Great Wall, the Lwan River was set as the limit. But the Japanese command now has announced that it will continue the pursuit as far as the Chinese continue to set up defenses.

American missionaries, who are numerous in the region, have been advised to leave. Whether any general American evacuation will be ordered has not been decided. In the Tientsin area, the question is up to the United States Consulate. The Fifteenth United States Infantry area has its base at Tientsin under treaty provision to keep Peiping's route to the sea open to traffic.

The largest number of Americans outside of Peiping and Tientsin who may be involved are 30 American Congregational Board missionaries at Tungehow, who have been exposed repeatedly to danger during Chinese disorders. Twenty American missionaries at Changli are apparently in no danger, as the Chinese have fled from there.

It is understood there are no Americans in the outlying places directly south of the Great Wall between the Lwan River and Tungehow, east of Peiping. Two Americans formerly residing at Heikuchwang, near Tungehow, moved away months ago.

Foreigners do not fear this city will be bombed. They think that, unless the Chinese Government at Nanking throws in more reinforcements to resist the Japanese and Manchukuo from along the Lwan River, there will be no serious results because of the present demoralization of the Chinese units.

FARM RELIEF BILL RAKED BY SENATOR PATTERSON

Missourian Calls It "Revolutionary," Says It Takes From One Class to Give to Another.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—In one of the few speeches he has made in the Senate, Senator Patterson (Rep.) of Missouri yesterday expressed strong opposition to the administration farm relief bill, which he described as "the most extraordinary and revolutionary measure ever presented to an American Congress."

Patterson said the allotment plan, if put into effect by the Secretary of Agriculture, would "create a gigantic sales tax on the necessities of life," which he estimated would cost the consumer $1,000,000,000 on the basis of present consumption.

"This plan," continued the Missouri Senator, "develops no new markets, creates no new national wealth, and would not increase the general purchasing power of the country. It simply takes from one class to give to another. I do not believe that our real dirt farmers as a whole want this bill passed in its present form."

Patterson said he favored that part of the bill relating to agricultural credits. He felt, however, that the bill as a whole contained more bad than good features and said he would vote against it.

C. & E. I. SIXTH ROAD TO FILE UNDER NEW BANKRUPTCY LAW
 Second One of Van Sweringen Group to Take Such Action; Other Is Missouri Pacific.

By the Associated Press.
 NEW YORK, April 19.—The Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railway Co., which filed a voluntary petition at Chicago yesterday under the recently amended bankruptcy law, is the sixth carrier to take advantage of the revised regulations which provide for a reorganization without the usual receivership proceedings.

Other roads which have appealed for reorganization privileges under the new law are the Missouri Pacific and its subsidiaries, the New Orleans, Texas & Mexico and the International Great Northern, which are controlled by the Allegheny Corporation; the Akron, Canton & Youngstown, one of whose leased line bonds is guaranteed by the New York, Chicago & St. Louis (Nickel Plate) road; and the Milwaukee & Western, a short line.

The C. & E. I., as is the Missouri Pacific, is identified as one of the Van Sweringen group of railroads, and is controlled by Chesapeake & Ohio through ownership of about 42 per cent of its common and preferred stock.

Reorganized in 1921, the C. & E. I. operates about 940 miles of line in Indiana and Illinois. Last year the road reported a deficit of $3,414,149 after charges against a loss of $3,841,115 in 1932. The road's long-term debt amounted to $38,413,386 at the end of last year. There are no bond maturities this year, the first being $2,736,000 of first consolidated 6s, due Oct. 1, 1934.

 SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 19.—Legislation for the strict regulation and full publicity of the sale of securities in Illinois was sponsored today by Gov. Horner and Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes.

DENIED DIME, SLUGS, ROBS YOUTH IN PARK

Beggar Takes Watch, Glasses and Hat of S. M. Webster, Washington Student.

Sherman M. Webster, a Washington University student residing at 304 North Skinner boulevard, reported he was knocked unconscious and robbed by a man who asked him for a dime, at the starting of the "one-hole golf course" in Forest Park last night.

Webster said he was sitting on a bench when the man asked him for the money. He replied that he had only a half dollar with him. He said the man struck him in the jaw and knocked him down. When he recovered consciousness, he found his half dollar, wrist watch, glasses and hat were missing.

A 30-year-old salesman residing on Concordia avenue was arrested in a pool room at 804 North Ninth street by Richard Brennan, a private watchman, who told police the salesman had entered the place with a revolver and told everyone to raise their hands. Brennan said he slipped out the back door and, returning by the front, forced the salesman to surrender. Zeno Mercurio, proprietor of the pool room, and two other men denied there had been a holdup. The watchman turned over to police a revolver he said he had taken from his prisoner. The prisoner made no statement.

Eugene Neuhaus, manager of a chain grocery at 3145 Lafayette avenue, was held up late yesterday by a man who held a hand in his pocket as if armed. The robber bought a can of tomatoes and as Neuhaus was getting his change, forced Neuhaus to give him $25 from the register. A woman customer started to follow the robber out of the store and was told, "Get back in there." The robber escaped.

A purse containing a ring and $25 was stolen from Miss Pauline Ravenstein, 1807 Kielen avenue, Wells-ton, by a purse-snatcher in the 5000 block of Page boulevard.

GETS 10 DAYS FOR SPEEDING
 Salesman Is Also Fined $45—

George Witt, 27 years old, a salesman, 3711 Maffitt avenue, was sentenced to 10 days in the workhouse and fined $45 by City Judge Blaine today, for speeding east on Olive street between Twenty-first and Seventeenth streets. He appeared. Witt in 1928 was sentenced in Police Court to 10 days in the workhouse for speeding.

POLICE SEEKING TO RESCUE SON OF JAKE THE BARBER

Officers Leave for Farmhouse Where Chicago Youth Is Reported Held by Kidnaping Gang.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, April 19.—Police squads departed today in search of a farmhouse in which they said Jerome Factor, 19-year-old son of John (Jake the Barber) Factor was being held by his kidnapers. They did not tell how they received information of the reported hideout. Meanwhile, officials and the underworld worked together in the effort to effect the return of the youth, seized last Wednesday night. The six former Capone hoodlums whom Factor himself appointed to negotiate with his son's abductors were at liberty on bonds after being booked on disorderly conduct charges. Efforts to release three men suspected of being connected with the kidnaping were balked when Chief Justice of the Criminal Court John Prysalski delayed hearing on a writ of habeas corpus filed in behalf of Archie Brown, Edward Strauss and Ted Patterson. The three were arrested yesterday and Brown and Patterson were identified by Mrs. Leonard Marcus, Jerome's mother, as two men she had seen near her home several days before the youth was kidnaped.

To rumors that negotiations with his son's kidnapers had so far progressed as to insure his safe return within 24 hours, Factor replied: "I have heard the same story. It must be true."

20 MEN QUIT WHEN PAY IS CUT AT STOCKYARDS

Employees of Horse Barns Refuse to Return to Their Jobs. Twenty of the 20 men employed in the horse barns at the National Stockyards, East St. Louis, have refused to return to work since Sunday, when a wage cut of 30 to 20 cents an hour became effective. About 300 other employees of the stockyards company accepted wage cuts of about 30 per cent.

The men protesting against the cut complain they have been working only four or five hours a day and three or four days a week, and that the reduction has made it impossible for them to make a living. The horse and mule handlers are not organized and several have returned to work since Sunday.

R. F. C. Lends Missouri $3967. WASHINGTON, April 19.—Emergency relief loans totaling over $600,000 were granted today by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for use during April and May, including Missouri, $3967.

M. H. CAHILL IS RE-ELECTED HEAD OF M-K-T RAILWAY

He Tells Directors Road Is Ready to Handle Increase in Traffic.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, April 19.—M. H. Cahill was re-elected president and chairman of the board of Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad yesterday at the annual meeting of directors. Returning from a 10-day inspection trip, Cahill told directors the road was in excellent physical condition, prepared to handle any increase in traffic that may come with improvement of business in the Southwest.

Business men in the Katy territory, he said, feel that restored confidence must be the first step in a return to better times and think vigorous action by President Roosevelt has tended to restore confidence.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY OF MAILING EXTORTION NOTE TO LINDBERGH

By the Associated Press. MIAMI, Fla., April 19.—Gilford Cloridge, charged with attempted extortion of $50,000 from Col. Charles A. Lindbergh under threat of kidnaping or injury of the flyer or some member of his family, pleaded not guilty yesterday in Federal court. His trial was set for May 2. He appeared without an attorney.

He is charged with mailing the threatening letter to Lindbergh on March 23. He has been in jail since his arrest late in March. Several months ago a county sanitary commission reported he was mentally deficient.

DYNAMITERS BLOW UP LEVEE IN MISSISSIPPI

Flood Waters of Tallahatchie River Inundate Farms in Three Counties.

By the Associated Press. CLARKSDALE, Miss., April 19.—A band of levee dynamiters advanced in boats up the chute bridge section of the Tallahatchie River flood region near Swan Lake yesterday, overpowered levee guards and dynamited a stretch of levee protecting 100,000 acres of fertile land, some already planted.

Unconfirmed reports said one man was injured in throwing dynamite. There was no shooting. After the dynamiting, the flood waters rushed over thousands of acres in Western Tallahatchie, Northern Leflore and Eastern Sunflower counties.

The chute levee is on the opposite side of the Tallahatchie River from Marhams Bayou levee which was blown out last week. The levee had been guarded closely against attacks for weeks, but the band of 100 to 300 men took the guards by surprise. Telephone wires near the levee were cut, the roads were placed under patrol and a railroad company was warned that the levee would be dynamited near the tracks.

OWNER OF ICE CREAM FIRM INDICTED ON ARSON CHARGE

Action Is Result of Broadway Fire; Woman Named in True Bill Based on Another Blast.

Two arson indictments were voted by the grand jury yesterday. Samuel Buzetta, owner of the Columbia Ice Cream Co., 2125 North Broadway, is charged with arson of a store building. A fire following an explosion occurred at the company building March 8. Firemen reported an odor of gasoline in the place. The building and fixtures were insured for $4500, police said.

The second indictment, charging arson of insured property, named Mrs. Thelma H. Reese, 7806 Alabama avenue, Mrs. Emily Franks and Leonard Van Veen, 310 East Espensted street. The charge is based on a fire at 8501 Reilly avenue last December. Arson of a store building is punishable by two to 10 years' imprisonment, and arson of insured property by a sentence of two years to life imprisonment.

CHILD ORDERED TO UNDERGO OPERATION DISAPPEARS AGAIN

Parents Take Helen Vasco, 2, and Flee From Home After Court Ruling.

HASTINGS-ON-HUDSON, N. Y., April 19.—Two-year-old Helen Vasco had vanished from her home again today and there was no way of telling how soon she would undergo an eye operation in accordance with a decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court. Her mother, Mrs. John Vasco, lost another round in her fight to prevent the operation when the court declared yesterday that parents have no right to endanger a child's life by forbidding an operation. Physicians have declared a malignant tumor on the eye will kill the child if not removed quickly.

The father, taking his family with him, fled from the Vasco home yesterday. They were believed to be in seclusion with relatives.

BRITONS ASK FOR EXILE INSTEAD OF PRISON IN RUSSIA

MacDonald and Thornton Appeal From Sentence of Soviet Court to Central Executive Committee.

OTHERS ORDERED TO LEAVE COUNTRY

W. Gregory Acquitted—Russians Get Term Ranging From 18 Months to 10 Years.

By the Associated Press. MOSCOW, April 19.—The Central Executive Committee of Soviet Russia has petitioned today to commute to exile for life the sentences imposed early this morning on L. C. Thornton and William MacDonal, British engineers who were convicted of espionage, sabotage and bribery. Thornton and MacDonal received the sentences imposed on the five Britons who were found guilty. Thornton was given a three-year prison term and MacDonal a sentence of 10 years.

Four other Britons who were given the "same charges" were given Russia, tomorrow, presumably forever.

Three of these—Alen Monkhoush, John Cushman, and C. H. Nordwall—were under orders to get out of the country. Albert W. Gregory had been acquitted as was expected. They were not allowed to see the condemned men with whom they had worked for nearly 10 years setting up British machinery in electrical plants throughout Russia.

Thornton, chief construction engineer, in Russia of the Metropolitan-Vickers Co. of England, was given a three-year term and his assistant, William H. MacDonald, a two-year sentence. Immediately afterward they were hurried off to prison.

Eleven Russian co-defendants were given prison terms up to 10 years and one was acquitted.

Drink Toast to Colleagues. The released Britons were cautious in talking about the fate of their associates but after leaving court they drank a toast to "colleagues in prison who have been unjustly convicted."

It was recalled that similar sentences imposed in the case of German engineers tried for sabotage in Russia since the Soviet regime was established were withdrawn as the prisoners were deported.

The prospect of leniency in the case of MacDonald appeared slight, however, since he admitted guilt both during and before the trial which began a week ago.

And although Thornton had repudiated a confession he made to the secret police, he was most heavily attacked by the prosecution and as a result received the severe sentence.

MacDonald had been held in but had since the raid on the Metropolitan-Vickers offices and references of the staff more than five weeks ago. The others gained liberty on bail after being held only a short time.

The released Britons went this morning to the suburban home of Monkhoush, who was director of business of the British company in Russia, to sleep. They said they were all going to take the train tomorrow night.

The Metropolitan-Vickers company will continue to operate in Russia under contract with government unless orders to contrary are received from Moscow.

Heater, England, the company's representative in the prosecution, stressed during the trial that the company was not the enemy of the Soviet government and that the company was not the enemy of the Soviet government.

Sentences of Russians. Ten-year sentences along with confiscation of their property were imposed on three of the Russian officials in the Soviet electrical industry. These were Vassili Gusakov, chief of the big power plant in the Ural Mountains; Lobonoff, chief of the electrical department of the Ivanovo power station; and L. A. Sukoruchin, manager of the Moscow electrical station.

The prosecution had demanded the death penalty for this "betraying them as traitors" and for their efforts to wreck Soviet plants and connected industries as much as was than any sentences of the Britons, since the men were acting against their country.

The lightest sentence of any was ordered in the case of the lone woman tried, Anna Kova, the bobbed-haired secretary of Monkhoush. She was sentenced to a year and a half in prison.

Only Russian acquitted was Y. I. Sokoloff, assistant director of Zlatoust; N. G. Zorin and M. I. Yarovskiy were sentenced to eight year terms. M. O. Krashinsky was given a five-year term.

Y. I. Sokoloff, who formerly

Sentences of Russians.

Ten-year sentences along with confiscation of their property were imposed on three of the Russians, officials in the Soviet electrical industry. Sukoruchkin, manager of the Moscow electrical station.

The prosecution had demanded the death penalty for this trio, branding them as "traitors" and asserting their efforts to wreck the Soviet plants and connected industries was much worse than any of the Britons, since these men were acting against their own country.

Report of Soviet News Agency On Moscow Trial Says Court Established Bribery, Sabotage

Declares Evidence Showed Counter-Revolutionary Groups Worked with Employees of English Firm to Wreck Electric Plant.

The Associated Press asked Tass, official Soviet news agency serving all newspapers in Russia, to transmit its own account of the proceedings and a statement of the Soviet point of view on the trial of English engineers and a group of Russians at Moscow. The Russian account follows:

MOSCOW, April 19.—(By Tass, official Soviet news agency.)—The Supreme Court of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics, sitting in special session from April 12 to April 18 under the chairmanship of Vassili Ulrich, examined in open hearing the case of defendants Gusev, Gregory, Ziebert, Zorin, Krasnenko, Kolyarevsky, Kutuzova, Cushty, Lebedeff, Lobonoff, MacDonald, Monkhous, Nordwall, Olyenik, Sokoloff, Sukoruchkin and Thornton.

The court established the following:

In the course of several years, systematic breakdowns of separate units took place in big electric stations of the U. S. S. R. at Moscow, Zlatoust, Cheliabinsk, Ivanovo, Baku and other places. These breakdowns stopped the units for more or less lengthy periods and lowered their power.

On the basis of data submitted to it, an expert committee concluded that in all the breakdowns investigated there was either criminal negligence or direct wrecking activities by the technical personnel of these stations.

On the basis of material adduced in the judicial investigation, the court established that the cause of the breakdowns was wrecking activity by counter-revolutionary groups, consisting of state employees at the electric stations (mostly higher technical personnel) acting in complicity with some employees of the private English firm, the Metropolitan-Vickers Co.

Wrecking in 4 Stations.

The court's verdict enumerates wrecking acts in four electric stations of the U. S. S. R. and qualifications of the crimes of those who directly executed the wrecking acts and of the English citizens.

The court established that among the employees of Metro-Vickers the leading part in the crimes belonged to Thornton, under whose direction wrecking activity at various electric stations was carried out by engineers of the firm—MacDonald, Cushty and Olyenik. Through these persons as well as directly, Thornton came into contact with counter-revolutionary groups and came to terms with them to effect breakdowns and to commit defects in equipment supplied by Metro-Vickers; he gave bribes to state employees for criminal actions committed by them; engaged in military espionage territory of the U. S. S. R. by collecting through MacDonald, Cushty and Olyenik secret information of military importance; and gave bribes to state employees (Gusev, Sokoloff and others) for information received. The criminal action against Thornton was in reference to article 58 of the Criminal Code, clauses 6, 7, 9 and 11.

Monkhous, a representative of the Moscow office of Metro-Vickers, was informed about Thornton's activities and participated by bribing state employees to conceal defects in equipment supplied by Metro-Vickers and also to conceal defects.

electrical engineering work in Chicago and San Francisco, was ordered to prison for three years and B. P. Lebedeff for two years.

N. P. Vitvitsky also was indicted but was excused from the trial because of illness.

The three Judges who tried the case and also imposed sentence came in with their verdict at 12:30 p. m. The presiding Judge, Vassili Ulrich, kept the crowded courtroom standing while he read a 25-minute statement of the findings.

Comment of Relatives of Convicted of Englishmen.

LONDON, April 18.—Mrs. John Cushty, whose husband was expelled from Russia, said she was relieved by the verdict because she knew "the prison to which my husband would have been sent."

Mrs. Allan Monkhous, wife of another expelled engineer, said she was "overwhelmed with delight that her husband will not suffer imprisonment."

The mother of William L. MacDonald, one of the sentenced men, declined to comment. Mrs. L. C. Thornton, wife of the other, learned of his punishment almost with relief, since she had been warned "to expect the worst."

The Metropolitan-Vickers Electrical Equipment Co., which sent the men to Russia, considered today what action to take in connection with its contract with the Soviet Government.

The directors issued a statement declaring they had "no faith in the so-called evidence produced" in the trial "or in the validity of the alleged confessions." It expressed confidence in the integrity of all the employees of the company in Russia.

TRYING TO LIMIT COMMODITIES IN FARM RELIEF BILL

Democratic Leaders and G. O. P. Independents Succeed in Eliminating Peanuts from Measure.

THIS REVERSES
PREVIOUS ACTION

Attempt to Be Made to Remove Sugar Cane and Sugar Beets, Added in Senate.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Rallying behind efforts of Democratic leaders to limit the number of commodities in the administration farm bill, the Senate today reversed its position of yesterday and eliminated peanuts.

The vote came on the parliamentary maneuver of Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, to table an amendment proposing that peanuts be added.

The amendment—approved yesterday without a record vote—was tabled 4 to 39 after having been reconsidered by a vote of 41 to 39 a moment before.

Other Eliminations Sought.

An effort will be made to remove sugar cane and sugar beets from the bill. These were included this morning at the urging of Senator Coughlin (Dem.), Colorado.

Reconsideration of the peanut amendment was moved by Senator Frazier (Rep.), North Dakota, after Democratic and Independent Republican leaders had appealed to Senators not to destroy the bill by adding to it commodities that would make its administration impossible.

An indication of the growing opposition to adding more commodities was found in the overwhelming defeat of a proposal by Senator Wheeler (Dem.), Montana, to add flaxseed.

Frazier, who had intended to urge that he be included if the other carried, changed his plan on the basis of that vote.

Leaders hope the bill can be finally passed today and returned to the House for the over-whelming passage of the measure.

Amendment by Senator Hatfield (Rep.), Virginia, to prohibit imports of agricultural products if production costs were below costs of similar domestic articles was rejected, 50 to 28, with Long of Louisiana and Bailey of North Carolina the only Democrats for it.

Just before the vote, Senators Borah (Rep.), Idaho, and Clark (Dem.), Missouri, labeled the Hatfield amendment "an embargo."

Inflation Debatable.

The inflation tumult on the floor continued yesterday despite withdrawal of the expansion proposals as Senator Bailey (Dem.), North Carolina, in a long assault on the farm bill, contended "controlled inflation" was a remedy for lifting drooping commodity prices.

Senator Connally (Dem.), Texas, called attention to his bill to reduce the gold content of the dollar by one-third. He offered it as an amendment, but indicated he would delay calling it up until the farm bill was out of the way.

In a brief speech Connally told his colleagues:

"The business depression will not be overcome until the price level of commodities is raised. The indebtedness of the people, states, counties and subdivisions cannot be paid on the present basis of property values. The burden of taxation cannot be carried with the dollar at its present high level and the price of commodities on their present low level. There must be an expansion of the currency in the United States."

"The most direct remedy is the direct relief grants to the states."

Representative Luce of Massachusetts, ranking Republican, announced he would file a minority report on the measure in behalf of the members of his party.

The Senate has passed the bill and a House vote soon is due.

reduction of the value of the dollar by reducing its gold content. Inflation by issuance of paper currency so long as it is redeemable in gold coin of the present weight and fineness will not meet the situation.

"Unless the value of the dollar is decreased, foreclosures and bankruptcy will liquidate not only individual indebtedness, but many banks, insurance companies and mortgage companies. It is unjust and unfair to require debtors to pay obligations contracted on the basis of a cheap dollar and the high commodity prices with a dear dollar when commodity prices are low."

"America is losing her foreign trade because she cannot compete with countries on depreciated currency basis. This condition can be met only by the United States adjusting the value of its money."

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.—Guarded by police, Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins spoke at the annual "friendship" dinner of the Temple University Women's Club last night. Uniformed police and plain-clothes men were stationed around the hall and stood at doors and in the balcony.

A threatening letter had been received at the local office of the United States Department of Labor. Authorities said it was written in a scrawling hand and that its contents were rambling and disconnected. The writer demanded an audience with Miss Perkins and declared that "something would happen to her" if his request were not granted. Other details of the letter were not made public.

In her speech, Secretary Perkins, commenting on business conditions, said:

"The upturn will be gradual. As to the present situation, we see in some places encouraging signs, and in others reverse indications that counteract these."

She said restoration of purchasing power was an essential to recovery.

Concerning wage reductions of Federal employees in connection with this principle, she said:

Declares Improvement in Economic Situation Must Be Based on Political Relations.

Tells Rome Commercial Meeting That 'Progressive Price Decline Disorganizes Production.'

By the Associated Press.

ROME, April 19.—Premier Mussolini suggested the payment of international debts with exchanges of goods or services in a speech today at the opening meeting of the inter-parliamentary commercial conference, presided over by King Victor Emmanuel.

The meeting was attended by many notables, including Capt. Hermann Goering, Minister without portfolio in the German Cabinet. He has been conferring with the Pope and Mussolini.

"A good sign is the recognition that is being reinforced everywhere that it is not possible to pay international debts merely with transfers of money," Mussolini said, "but that the debts themselves must be paid above all with exchanges of goods or services."

Mussolini said the question was "one of the most complex and delicate because it embraces problems of an economic and financial nature not only as regards debtor countries, but also creditor countries."

His opinion was regarded as most important here because his pronouncement was made less than a week before the departure of Finance Minister Guido Jung to the preliminary world economic conference at Washington.

A better international economic situation depends upon a better position.

OTHERS ORDERED TO LEAVE COUNTRY

A. W. Gregory Acquitted—Russians Get Terms Ranging From 18 Months to 10 Years.

By the Associated Press.

MOSCOW, April 19.—The Central Executive Committee of the Soviet Union today petitioned to commute to exile for life the prison sentences imposed early this morning on L. C. Thornton and William H. MacDonald, British engineers who were convicted of espionage, sabotage and bribery. Thornton and MacDonald received the only sentences imposed on the five Britons who were found guilty. Thornton was given a three-year prison term and MacDonald a sentence of two years.

Four other Britons who were sentenced on the same charges were leaving Russia, tomorrow, presumably forever.

Three of these—Allen Monkhous, John Cushty, and C. H. Nordwall—were under orders to get out of the country. Albert W. Gregory had been acquitted, as was expected. They were not allowed to see whom they had worked for 10 years in setting up British machinery in electrical plants throughout Russia. Thornton, chief construction engineer, in Russia of the Metropolitan-Vickers Co. of England, was given a three-year term and his gripped assistant, William H. MacDonald, a two-year sentence. Immediately afterward they were hustled off to prison.

Eleven Russian co-defendants were given prison terms up to 10 years and one was acquitted.

Drink Toast to Colleagues.

The released Britons were cautious in talking about the fate of their associates but after leaving a court they drank a toast to "our colleagues in prison who have been unjustly convicted."

It was recalled that similar sentences imposed in the case of German engineers tried for sabotage in Russia since the Soviet regime was established were withdrawn and the prisoners deported.

The prospect of leniency in the case of MacDonald appeared slight, however, since he admitted his guilt both during and before the trial which began a week ago today. And although Thornton had repudiated a confession he made to the secret police, he was most bitterly attacked by the prosecution and as a result received the severest sentence.

MacDonald had been held without bail since the raid on the Metropolitan-Vickers offices and residences of the staff more than five weeks ago. The others gained their liberty on bail after being held only a short time.

The released Britons went this morning to the suburban home of MacDonald, who was director of all business of the British company in Russia, to sleep. They said they were all going to take the Berlin train tomorrow night.

The Metropolitan-Vickers company will continue to operate in Russia under contract with the Government unless orders to the contrary are received from Manchester. England, the company headquarters. The prosecution pressed during the trial that the Britons were acting against the individual employees and not the company. There are nine other British engineers employed here by the company.

Sentences of Russians.

Ten-year sentences along with confiscation of their property were imposed on three of the Russians, officials in the Soviet electrical industry. These were Vassili Gusev, director of the big power plant at Zlatoust in the Ural Mountains; A. Lobonoff, chief of the electrical department of the Ivanovo power station, and L. A. Sukoruchkin, manager of the Moscow electrical station.

The prosecution had demanded the death penalty for this trio, branding them as "traitors" and asserting their efforts to wreck the Soviet plants and connected industries was much worse than any of the Britons, since these men were acting against their own country.

The lightest sentence of any imposed was ordered in the case of the lone woman tried, Anna Kutuzova, the bobbed-haired secretary to MacDonald. She was sentenced to a year and a half in prison. The only Russian acquitted was Y. I. Lebert.

V. A. Sokoloff, assistant director of the Ural Mountains and M. L. Zlatoust, N. G. Zarin and M. L. Olyarenko were sentenced to five-year terms. M. O. Krasnenko was given a five-year term. E. Olyenik, who formerly did

SAFETY COUNCIL SEEKS FUND TO PAY DEFICIT

Executive Committee Soliciting $4500 to Meet Decline in Revenue.

St. Louis Safety Council is seeking to raise funds to cover a deficit for the fiscal year ending next May 1. The executive committee is soliciting about $4500 to cover a drop in revenue due to conditions of lessened unemployment in various industries contributing to the support of the organization.

The Council is a voluntary non-profit making organization which carries on accident prevention work and compiles statistics on accidents and their causes. Membership fees range upward from $10, according to the type of membership taken.

The Council was organized in 1917 as a committee of the old Business Men's League and had as its original purpose the prevention of industrial accidents. Since 1918 it has functioned as a separate organization and two years later it expanded its work into the home, school and other fields. It has been entirely dependent for support on membership fees.

In the field of public safety various committees of the Council are concerned with traffic problems, legislation for the licensing of automobile drivers and other matters. It operates each year a safe driving school for women.

The commercial division sponsors contests which have resulted in substantial decreases in the accidents reported by fleets of commercial vehicles. Periodic talks on safe driving are made at meetings of chauffeurs.

Interplant safety contests are sponsored by the industrial division and these are credited with effecting an appreciable decline in industrial accidents. This division conducts safety training courses for foremen and maintains an engineering division to deal with safety problems.

The Safety Council organized the first school boy patrol in St. Louis, an activity since taken over by the Automobile Club. It has fostered the organization of Junior Safety Councils in the schools and courses of instruction in safety.

Its Careful Children's Club presents regular programs over the radio, instilling safety rules.

COLLEGE SOCIETY CEREMONIES

Charles Nagel Made Honorary Member of Washington U. Group.

Omicron Delta Kappa and Mortar Board, senior honorary societies for men and women students, respectively, at Washington University, held their annual pledge ceremonies today in the main quadrangle on the campus. It was the first pledging for Omicron Delta Kappa, established in February.

Charles Nagel, President of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, Walter J. G. Neum, President of the Board of Aldermen, and Douglas V. Martin Jr. were made honorary members of Omicron Delta Kappa. Miss Dorothy Davies and Miss Helen McClelland of the women's physical education department and Mrs. Jessica Young Stephens, assistant professor of mathematics, were made honorary members of Mortar Board.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

WITH the passing of the debutante season, a group of young women who came out in the fall have found amusement and instruction in a French Club, formed for the purpose of French conversation and continued study of the language.

The club is composed of Miss Catherine Stewart, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Stewart; Miss Helen Fusz, daughter of Eugene A. Fusz; Miss Louise McCluney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. McCluney; Miss Eleanor Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Hall; Miss Mary Bruce Nichols, daughter of Mrs. William L. Nichols; Miss Clara Frampont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Craig Frampont; and Miss Josephine Kuhn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. L. Kuhn.

They meet twice a week, usually on Wednesdays and Fridays at the homes of the members. The club met yesterday at the home of Miss Fusz, 6925 Delmar boulevard.

Mrs. Alice Orthwein Heisler, 15 Portland place, will depart today for Little Rock, Ark., to meet her mother, Mrs. William D. Orthwein, who is on her way to the South. They spent some time in New Orleans, and motored to Natchez, Miss., to view the gardens.

The marriage of Miss Virginia Ingamells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Ingamells, 436 Clay avenue, Kirkwood, and Louis Pink Boeger Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Boeger, 7345 Westmoreland drive, University City, took place this morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The marriage service was read by the Rev. Henry G. Little, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Kirkwood in the presence of about 30 guests.

There were no attendants. The ceremony took place in the living room before an improvised altar arranged in the deeply recessed windows. The windows were screened by tulle and covered with huckleberry foliage and smilax and banked with palms and ferns. At each side of the altar were vases of spring flowers and candelabra filled with ivory cathedral tapers.

The bride was married in her traveling suit, an ensemble of a soft pastel green wool crepe. The coat was designed with cape banding in beige fox fur. She wore a small straw hat and slippers to match the fur on the coat. Her flowers were orchids in a shoulder corsage. Mrs. Ingamells wore an afternoon gown of gray crepe and a shoulder corsage of gardenias and violets.

Clusters of spring flowers in delicate shades decorated the reception hall and the dining room. The bridal table was adorned in more of the blossoms and was lighted by four tall pale pink candles in silver holders.

Mr. Boeger and his bride will spend the honeymoon at Corpus Christi, Miss., and New Orleans, La. On their return they will be with his parents until they build a house of their own. He was graduated from Washington University and is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. The bride attended Washington University and is a member of Pi Beta Phi.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Speth of Fair Oaks will depart in a few days to spend a week or 10 days in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper S. Yost have sent out invitations for a reception and dance to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday night, May 2, at 8:30 o'clock at Hotel Chase.

Given Campbell Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Campbell, has resumed his studies at the University of Missouri after spending the spring holidays with his parents. Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, who have had an apartment at 6480 Delmar boulevard, for the winter will open

SHAW THINKS HEAVEN IS BEST PLACE TO LIVE

Playwright, Back in England, Gossips About His World Tour.

By the Associated Press. SOUTHAMPTON, April 19.—George Bernard Shaw, arriving home from a cruise of the world, declared today that after visiting 29 countries he thought perhaps the best place in which to live would be heaven.

"I do not think the American back-to-beer policy will make any difference," Shaw said, "because I found that when prohibition was still in force there was plenty of alcoholic liquor available."

Commenting on the trial of British engineers in Moscow, he said he had expected it to be fairer than a trial in any other country because it was conducted by workers without any prejudice.

He said he had written enough for six plays on his voyage and the result of it all would be that he would probably produce one more play or perhaps two.

Shaw still carried a wreath of flowers which an admirer tried to put about his neck in Honolulu, with the result that he injured his leg in escaping.

"My danger was being mobbed to death, which I very nearly was," he said.

"In general, wherever I went I found civilized people unhappy and anxious, but uncivilized people happy and carefree."

"I think the American expression 'Oh yeah' is rather pretty."

Academy. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of London, and is a member of an old St. Louis family, whose first home here was built 100 years ago.

Miss Helen Muehling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Muehling, 5916 Cabanne avenue, was married this morning at 10:30 o'clock to Leo Lawrence Manda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manda, 3920 Cote Brillante avenue.

The ceremony was performed at St. Barbara's Church by the Rev. E. J. Lenkes before an altar decorated with Easter lilies and lighted by cathedral candles.

The bride wore an ivory satin wedding gown, made simply with full puffed sleeves tapering to the wrist, and a high neck buttoned at the back. The ample skirt terminated in a four-yard train. She wore a close fitting cap of princess lace and orange blossoms, from which fell a long full tulle veil. She carried orchids, gardenias and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was Miss Mary Dwyer, and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Riegel, Miss Thompson and Miss Edie Manda. Miss Dwyer was groomed in peach organdie with hat and accessories to match, and carried tulle roses. The bridesmaids wore misty green organdie with harmonizing accessories and carried white flowers. John Muehling, brother of the bride, was best man, and the groomsmen were John Faust, William Konen and Alva Clark. The ushers were Julius and Carl Muehling.

HOW LEAD PENCIL SOLVED PROBLEM AFTER 25 YEARS

Dr. Joseph Siepien to Describe His Electrical Discoveries in Address Here.

Dr. Joseph Siepien, discoverer of the de-ionizing method of taming lightning, will discuss his inventions at a meeting of the St. Louis Chapter of the American Institute of Electric Engineers, tonight at the Engineers' Club, 4389 Lindell boulevard.

He spoke today to engineering students at Washington University. He is a research engineer of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co. After he and his associate, Dr. Leon R. Ludwig, had been out of reach. They found that sought for years a means of starting mercury arcs, sought by other scientists for 25 years, they discovered that the means had rarely been out of reach. It was a common lead pencil. They found that a tiny current in the graphite "lead" would control currents 1,000,000 times greater in the arc.

NEUN HAS LITTLE LEFT OF HIS JOB BUT THE SALARY

Democratic Aldermen Adopt Rules Taking Away Practically All of President's Powers.

After the Democratic majority of the new Board of Aldermen, which convened yesterday, asserted its powers in shearing President Neun, Republican, of virtually all of his authority, it brought about adjournment of the board until 11 a. m. tomorrow.

Only routine business is likely to be conducted at tomorrow's meeting. The appointment of committees probably will be made then. The Democratic Aldermen arranged to convene this afternoon to choose the committees. It was learned that five Democrats and two Republicans probably will be placed on each committee and no Republican will be given a chairmanship.

The majority lost no time in assuming control of the board. Neun has two years still to serve as president, but he is likely to have little to do in that office. Emmett Golden (Dem.), lawyer and new Twenty-seventh Ward Alderman, was made vice-president and given control of the power formerly exercised by Neun.

John P. Collins (Dem.), also a lawyer, new Nineteenth Ward Alderman and majority floor leader, was made speaker pro tem, with the right of acting for the vice-president when Golden is absent. Heretofore the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee has been ex-officio speaker pro tem.

Neun Loses Right to Vote. The effect of the change is to center legislative as well as administrative authority in the Democratic party. Neun was deprived of the right to vote, except in case of a tie. The practice always has been for the president to vote on all questions. Neun told reporters City Counselor Mauch had ruled some time ago in support of this practice.

Duties given Vice-President Golden, heretofore assigned to President Neun, include: appointment of all committees, including special committees; reference of all bills to committees; decision on questions of order; announcement of special order of the day; appointment of a chairman when the board goes into Committee of the Whole; general supervision over the board's sergeant-at-arms and janitor-page. In addition, Golden or, in his absence, Collins, is given the right to sign any bill which Neun may refuse to sign.

Neun also was deprived of the right of ex-officio membership on committees. Another change in the rules provides that any bill, motion or resolution may be made a special order of business by majority vote. Previously this required a two-thirds vote, except for appropriation measures, which needed only a majority.

By vote of the majority, Neun will be deprived of his secretary. The new rules eliminate a reference to the secretary. Apparently it will be necessary, however, to repeal an ordinance providing for this employee, to carry out this objective. Golden told reporters economy was the reason for dropping the secretary. Friends of Neun interpreted the action as an extra slap at the President. Andrew A. Koettler, formerly an Alderman, has been Neun's secretary for several years, at $3000 a year. The majority also deprived Neun of the appointment of the janitor-page.

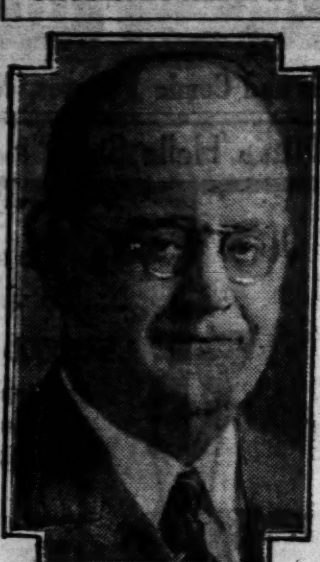

16 to 12 Majority. The Democrats have a 16 to 12 majority, since Neun's vote was taken away. The 14 new Aldermen, representing the odd-numbered wards, who were installed yesterday, and two Aldermen elected to vacancies last November, are Democrats. Prior to November the board had never had a Democratic member.

Neun, defeated for Mayor by Bernard F. Dickmann (Dem.), who took office yesterday, was taken by surprise by the extent of the majority's action. He was not present when the new rules making this possible were adopted. At that point in the proceedings he was still Acting Mayor, before Mayor Dickmann took the oath of office. "I don't know yet what I'll do about this situation," Neun said today. "I won't resign or quit attending meetings. Thousands of voters will resent the treatment given me by the Democrats. I received more votes for Mayor than any one elected Mayor before, and the people who voted for me are not going to be satisfied with this treatment. It is not doing the Democratic party any good."

Comments on His Vote. "As to taking my vote away from me, it is not really effective any way, except in case of a tie. I don't know whether I'll take any action about this. I can still attend committee meetings as a member of the board, but if I am not an ex-officio member I will lose my vote on committees. Frequently in the past I have cast the deciding vote to bring a bill out of committee. The changes about special order of business mean nothing; that order is used to concentrate on important measures."

Golden declared Neun should have resigned as aldermanic president when running for Mayor. He added: "We Democrats are taking responsibility in the board and feel we should have full control. I don't see what there is left for Neun to do but open meetings. That job of

BODY FOUND, SAID TO BE THAT OF MISSING ITALIAN FLYER

Capt. Roberto DiNapoli, missing since Friday on England-to-Australia trip.

By the Associated Press. CHITTAGONG, India, April 19.—The body of a European found on Chitragong Island off the coast from Noakhali, Bengal, is thought to be that of the Italian flyer, Capt. L. Robiano, who has been missing since he left Calcutta Friday on his projected England-to-Australia flight.

By the Associated Press. SINGAPORE, April 19.—Mrs. Harry Bonney, who arrived yesterday on the way to England on an airplane flight from Australia, was temporarily delayed today by illness.

LONDON, April 19.—Search is being conducted for Capt. William Lancaster of England who disappeared last Wednesday while flying over the Sahara in an attempt to beat Mrs. Amy Johnson Molson's record from England to South Africa. A ground search is being carried on by Frenchmen in automobiles, while two military airplanes are flying over the wastes north of Gao, French West Africa.

Miss Jean Batten of New Zealand, who attempted to make a solo flight from England to Australia, was forced down near Karachi, India, last week. She attempted to get her plane into the Karachi airfield on Sunday but was again forced down, the plane was damaged and Miss Batten remained in Karachi.

FORMER PARACHUTE JUMPER HIT BY AUTO FRIDAY DIES

Arthur Midget, 54, Struck Crossing Street in East St. Louis.

Arthur Midget, 54 years old, died at St. Mary's Hospital at East St. Louis today from injuries suffered last Friday when struck by an automobile that did not stop, at Broadway and Fourteenth street, East St. Louis. Police yesterday arrested Boyd Jackson, 16-year-old Negro schoolboy, who they said had admitted driving the machine. He lives at 103 North Fourteenth street, East St. Louis. Midget was crossing the street at the intersection when he was struck. He suffered fractured legs and a skull injury. Until an injury had crippled him permanently, he had been a parachute jumper at county fairs. In recent years he was employed as ticket seller at an East St. Louis Negro motion picture theater. He lived at 20 North Third street, East St. Louis.

MUSSOLINI URGES DEBT PAYMENT IN GOODS, SERVICES

Political situation, Mussolini said. "Solution of the economic problems you are called to discuss," he said, "is conditioned on reaching a better political atmosphere, toward which all statesmen in every part of the world are working, and on arriving at a profound comprehension of the problems and difficulties of others by the men who direct the economic destinies of the various countries."

He said Italy was opposed to quotas on imports and restrictions on foreign exchange which "raise a heap of obstacles to commercial movement, contracting its volume notably and creating a harmful disequilibrium between internal and external prices."

Effect of Price Decline. Speaking on the disparity between wholesale and retail prices, Mussolini remarked that the "continuous and progressive decline in prices disorganizes production and produces a reduction in the purchasing power of the various countries."

"Every reduction in sales," he continued, "is a step toward stoppage of productive activities and therefore a greater stimulus toward unemployment, while, on the other hand, it places debtor countries in a condition where they find ever greater difficulties in satisfying their obligations."

"We believe that to get out of the vicious circle in which we find ourselves it is necessary to work simultaneously in various fields—that is the fields of credit, production and commerce."

Referring to the problem of economic reconstruction in Central and Eastern Europe, he said: "Italy is inspired by the principle that above all it is necessary to provide adequate liquidation of the past on the financial terrain, monetary rehabilitation and assistance in the economic-agrarian field."

JAPAN RE-ESTABLISHES ITS NAVAL BASE AT PORT ARTHUR

Second Overseas Squadron, Charged With Protecting Manchukuo Interests, Will Be There. TOKIO, April 19.—The Navy Office today announced the re-establishment of the Japanese naval port at Port Arthur, Manchuria, at which will be based the Second Overseas Squadron, charged with the defense of Japanese lives and interests on the coast of Manchukuo and North China. Japan's previous naval port at Port Arthur was abolished in 1922 after the Washington conference. The Second Overseas Squadron at present consists of two cruisers, one small airplane-carrier, one mine-layer and seven destroyers. The majority of the ships are in Chinese waters in the vicinity of Chinwangtao and Tientsin.

STREET CAR MOTORMAN IS KILLED IN HOLDUP

Operator of Kansas City, Kan., Trolley Found Shot Dead: Series of Robberies.

KANSAS CITY, Kan., April 19.—John T. Reid, 56 years old, street car motorman, was shot last night, apparently the victim of one of a series of street car holdups here in recent weeks. Reid was found lying on his undischarged pistol near his street car and his money changer was missing.

Henry Schmidt, a grocer, told police he heard shots and on running to the window of his residence saw a man dart into an alley.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 19.—Marcelino Julian, Filipino, who last

DRIG-GEN. D. T. SIMMONS DIES

Retired Officer Commanded Camp Dodge During War.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Brigadier-General Benjamin T. Simmons, U. S. A., retired, who during the World War commanded the Nineteenth Division at Camp Dodge, Iowa, died last night at the Walter Reed General Hospital.

Gen. Simmons was born in Palo Alto, N. C., Aug. 27, 1871. He had been in failing health for several months, and was retired for disability seven years ago. He was a West Point graduate, served in both the Cuban and Philippine campaigns and was awarded the silver star citation for gallantry in action during the 13-day siege of Santiago, 1898. For a time after entry of the United States into the World War, Gen. Simmons was a member of the General Staff in Washington.

CLASH OVER JUDGMENT AT MRS. JUDG SANITY HEARING

Judge's Order to Lock Group for Night in Court House Starts Up Close of Day.

By the Associated Press. FLORENCE, Ariz., April 19.—After observing Mrs. Winnie Judd for four days at her hearing, Dr. Paul Bowers, a geologist, declared he would testify the woman was sane. He said Judd was suffering from "a great fear, and is thoroughly

Dr. Bowers testified Judd's trial for the murder of Agnes Anne Lerol that she was sane, and he said today, in the woman's actions had him to change his opinion added that Mrs. Judd had historic ability.

Hypothetical Question. The Court ruled the State proposition to Dr. George W. Bowers, psychiatrist, a hypothetical question as to Mrs. Judd's sanity. "In the case of a theoretical son," Assistant County Attorney Read said, "who has talked gallows, the rope and hangings states they never will be that evil fight, will kill who states that she is going to be hanged but that another person who also killed going to be hanged, that he helped him but did not he who procures saws and attempts escape and when frustrated ens to commit suicide—would say such a person is insane does not understand her and the punishment to be her?"

"I feel the facts as outlined not sufficiently correlated to give an intelligent answer," Stephens replied.

Dr. Win Wylie, last expert for Mrs. Judd, also was present and declined to testify. "It does not appear any reference to circumstances under which such conversations took place," he asserted cannot be answered intelligently. Dr. Wylie, as has been reported, is suffering from dementia coxa to the extent, in his opinion, that he does not understand his own mind or the situation of the case.

Yesterday's Hearing. The insanity hearing was held last night in an uproar, fence counsel demanding that Attorney Will Truman for contempt of court for prejudicial remarks.

Superior Judge E. L. G. ordered the jury locked up last night in the Final Court house. The order was made after attorneys requested a recess until the morning. A moment after Judge G. announced recess until the morning, the jurors they were kept together for the hearing, the County Jail jumped to his feet.

"May it please the Court," we wish the record to show it was the defense counsel who requested this action and the court desired it."

Objections to the remarks made immediately by E. L. G. Farley of Mrs. Judd's counsel. "That is the most gross ever saw committed in a law," he declared.

"It is an error," said Green, "but it is done now."

The men were taken to Evanston hospital. Aydt's brother, Gus, told Louisa.

You'll do it better on Dated Coffee

Coffee is a valuable stimulant. It not only quickens the muscles, it speeds up the brain. Away with fatigue, away with the blues! But avoid stale coffee.

FOR hundreds of years, men and women who have been famous in history . . . soldiers and statesmen, artists and authors . . . have made liberal use of coffee as a stimulant.

Why, then, do some people think they must deprive themselves of this useful and delicious drink? Science uncovered the facts. Science says people have trouble when they drink stale coffee! Stale coffee contains rancid oil. Nearly half a cupful to the pound. If you keep on drinking stale coffee, you may indeed get indigestion or feel blue or sleep poorly.

But research shows that normal, healthy grown-ups can enjoy as many as 5 cups of coffee every day if they make sure that it is fresh. By instituting Dated Coffee, Chase & Sanborn have enabled everyone to stimulate brain and body to their highest pitch—safely.

The date proving its freshness—and full, delicious rich flavor—is on every pound of Chase & Sanborn's Dated Coffee. Your grocer is not allowed to keep a can of it more than ten days. Order Dated Coffee tomorrow. You'll work, play—do everything better on Dated Coffee.

CLASH OVER JURY AT MRS. JUDD'S SANITY HEARING

Judge's Order to Lock Up Group for Night in Courthouse Starts Uproar at Close of Day.

By the Associated Press.

FLORENCE, Ark., April 19.—After observing Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd for four days at her sanity hearing, Dr. Paul Bowers, Los Angeles psychiatrist, declared today he would testify the condemned woman was sane. He said Mrs. Judd was suffering from "a state of great fear, and is thoroughly frightened."

Dr. Bowers testified at Mrs. Judd's trial for the murder of Mrs. Agnes Anne Lerol that she was sane and, he said today, nothing in the woman's actions had caused him to change his opinion. He added that Mrs. Judd has "great histrionic ability."

Hypothetical Question.
The court ruled the State might propound to Dr. George W. Stephens, psychiatrist, a hypothetical question as to Mrs. Judd's insanity. "In the case of a theoretical person," Assistant County Prosecutor Reed said, "who has talked of the gallows, the rope and hanging; who states they never will hang her, that she will fight, will kill herself; who states that she is going to be hanged but that another person in the prison who also killed is not going to be hanged, that the doctors helped him but did not help her; who procures saws and attempts to escape and when frustrated threatens to commit suicide—would you say such a person is insane and does not understand her situation and the punishment to be meted to her?"

"I feel the facts as outlined are not sufficiently correlated for me to give an intelligent answer," Dr. Stephens replied.

Dr. Win Wylie, last expert called for Mrs. Judd, also was propounded the question and declined to answer it definitely. "It does not contain any reference to circumstances under which such conversation and actions took place," he asserted. "It cannot be answered intelligently."

Dr. Wylie, as had all of the defense alienists, declared Mrs. Judd to be suffering from dementia praecox to the extent, in his opinion, she does not understand her situation or the sentence given her.

Yesterday's Hearing: Reprieve Granted Until April 25.
The insanity hearing adjourned last night in an uproar, with defense counsel demanding that County Attorney Will Truman be cited for contempt of court for alleged prejudicial remarks.

Superior Judge E. L. Green had ordered the jury locked up for the night in the Pinal County courthouse. The order was mandatory after attorneys requested the detention earlier in the day.

A moment after Judge Green had announced recess until today, and informed the jurors they were to be kept together for the rest of the hearing, the County Attorney jumped to his feet.

"May it please the Court," he said, "we wish the record to show that it was the defense counsel who requested this action and that we did not desire it."

Objections to the remark were made immediately by E. W. MacFarland, of Mrs. Judd's counsel.

"That is the most gross error I ever saw committed in a court of law," he declared.

"It is an error," said Judge Green, "but it is done now."

EAST ST. LOUIS MAN KILLED
AS AUTO UPSSETS IN CRASH

George Aydt, a Carpenter, Meets Death in Accident Near Mount Carmel.

George Aydt, 54 years old, an East St. Louis carpenter, was killed yesterday when the automobile he was driving to Evansville, Ind., overturned on a highway near Mount Carmel, Ill. His companion, William S. Eamer, suffered three fractured ribs.

Both men lived at 541 East Verona avenue, East St. Louis. Eamer said Aydt lost control of the machine when he attempted to avoid a waterhole in the road and struck another. The men were on their way to Evansville to take Aydt's brother, Gus, to East St. Louis.

19,274 GARMENTS DISTRIBUTED TO 6278 PERSONS IN WEEK

Contributions to the Clothing Bureau, 515 North Broadway, have increased recently but have not yet caught up with the demand, according to Mrs. Irvin Bettman, chairman.

The bureau last week, she said, distributed 19,274 garments to 6278 needy individuals, but was unable to furnish 2544 garments which were requisitioned.

Men's suits, women's spring coats and shoes of all kinds are particularly needed, Mrs. Bettman said. Contributions will be called for if donors telephone CEcentral 3365.

STOCKS UP 1 TO 11 POINTS; "INFLATION" BUYING WAVE

Turnover on Stock Exchange Largest Since Last September - Commodity Shares in Greatest Demand.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The stock market was swept up in an inflationary buying wave today, which boosted many issues 1 to 11 points and piled up the largest turnover since last September.

The turnover reached some 5,000,000 shares, which was substantially larger than in the flurry of buying which greeted the resumption of trading after the March banking holiday. Although occasional shares of profit taking appeared, the day's best prices were around the day's best. Metals, rubber and other commodity shares were particularly strong, as the staple markets soared to accompany the sharp drop in dollar exchange. Gilt-edged bonds weakened as funds were shifted into shares and staples.

Homeless Mining jumped 11 points. Among the silver issues U. S. Smelting advanced more than 8. American Smelting rose 5, and copper shares rising 3 to more than 5 included U. S. Steel common and preferred, National Steel, Allied Chemical, Con. Products, American Tobacco, P. Liggett & Myers B, du Pont, Goodyear, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, American Telephone, Cerro de Pasco, Delaware & Hudson and others. Issues up 2 or more included Kennecott and Standard of New Jersey General and Standard of New Jersey. The ticker fell several minutes to arrears. Utilities were soft for a time, but stiffened later. Consolidated Gas recovered most of a loss of 2 points, and American Telephone turned buoyant in the final dealings.

Shift to Commodity Shares.

The market had more than inflation agitation to be bullish about, with steel producers rising to 23 per cent of capacity, the highest in about a year, but the inflationary factor was the chief motivating factor, as foreign currencies rose swiftly against the dollar, and commodity markets boomed.

There was a decided tendency to shift out of public utility shares into shares of companies with inventories of materials which were appreciating in value, on the theory that public utility rates would be slow in adjusting themselves to a higher price level. A number of public utility executives have viewed prospective inflation rather hopefully, however, in expectation that it might tend to stiffen the rates. While railroad rates are also fixed, the railroads responded optimistically, presumably on the prospect of stimulation of business by the rise in prices.

While Wall Street has viewed inflationary agitation with mixed feelings, many prominent quarters have expressed high hopes that the public decision of the Federal Reserve Board to raise the discount rate to 3 per cent would be followed by a substantial rise in the rate.

If the meantime, the financial community was heartened by the news that steel production had risen to 20 per cent of capacity as compared with the 19 per cent of a week ago. This is the fourth consecutive weekly increase and the highest rate in about a year, according to the "Iron Age." Some smaller companies, with more limited range of products, are working at a much higher rate. Electric power production, amounting to 1,408,000 kilowatts hours for the week ended April 15, showed a slight increase over the preceding week.

Foreign exchanges were erratic, but sterling advanced more than 30 cents to above $2.80. The Dutch guilder gained more than a cent, and the French franc about three-tenths of a cent. The last named going well above their gold parities.

Wheat futures closed around 2 cents a bushel higher, after extreme advance of 4 cents. Cotton futures gained about 2 cents. Bar silver was marked up 3 cents, and a wide assortment of staples, such as rubber, wool, coffee and sugar were up substantially.

CHEERS AS GYPSY GIRL IS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Jury Acquits Her of Holdup Charge After Deliberating for an Hour.

Clara Costa, 20-year-old Gypsy, was acquitted of robbery with a deadly weapon yesterday by a jury which deliberated for an hour.

The verdict was greeted with cheers by a crowd which filled Judge Hoffmeister's courtroom, and the judge threatened to clear the room. Among those present were brightly clad gypsy friends of the defendant. Mrs. Costa smiled and thanked the jurors.

3239 Bales street and robbed him of $4.80.

Mrs. Costa pleaded it was a case of mistaken identity. On the day of the robbery, Feb. 2, she was in the 1500 block of Franklin avenue, she testified, seeking customers for the fortune-telling establishment her mother operates there.

Her alibi was corroborated by three men and a woman who testified they had seen her on Franklin avenue at the time of the robbery.

DR. NORMAN L. EDWER CHOSEN HEAD OF ST. LOUIS PRESBYTERY

Three Pastors and Three Elders Elected Commissioners to General Assembly.

The Rev. Dr. Norman L. Edwer, assistant pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, was elected Moderator of the St. Louis Presbytery at its annual meeting at Kingshighway Church yesterday.

Commissioners to the General Assembly, meeting next month in Columbus, O., are the Rev. Henry Little Jr. of Kirkwood, the Rev. Dwight C. Chapin of East Grand Boulevard Church, the Rev. Leigh O. Wright of Giddings Church and Elders A. G. Grodzemacher, First Church; W. L. Upson, Second Church; and J. W. Woods, Memorial Church. Six alternates were named.

A young people's summer conference was announced, to be held June 17 to 24 at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, for the three presbyteries in Eastern Missouri.

PORO COLLEGE OWNER LOSES SUIT IN COURT 20 YEARS

W. L. Majors Gets Judgment for $2325 in $100,000 Breach of Contract Claim.

In a case which has been 20 years in the Circuit Court, Judge Calhoun held yesterday that Walter L. Majors, Negro, was entitled to judgment of $2325 in his breach of contract suit against Mrs. Annie Malone, owner of Poro College, and manufacturer of cosmetics used by Negroes.

In his ruling Judge Calhoun accepted the report of a referee, overruling objections both sides had filed to the report.

Mrs. Malone, whose business is now operated in Chicago, had a counter claim against Majors, and Majors contended the judgment was not large enough. Majors asserted he had a two-year profit-sharing contract with Mrs. Malone, but was discharged after managing the business for six weeks. He filed suit in 1913, for $200,000.

KELVINATOR

KELVINATOR will not cheapen its product to meet a low price—therefore, when material costs go up (and we hope they do because that will mean better times for you, for us, and for everybody) the price of this Kelvinator will be increased!

We suggest that you see this model to-day or to-morrow. Don't wait. Take advantage of the present low price—the lowest price in Kelvinator's 19 years in the industry.

A Standard Model

This beautiful model is a Standard 1933 Kelvinator. It isn't a new model, built to meet a cheap price. The power plant is a standard Kelvinator unit, the same as used in the larger, more expensive models. It is not an undersized unit that must run all the time to hold low temperatures. Instead, it runs only about one third of the time, which means less wear, longer life, greater economy.

A Wealth of Features

You will find many desirable features. It has a Temperature Selector with 8 freezing speeds—3-Zone Cold, three distinct types of refrigeration—the KeepCold Defroster, which permits constant refrigeration while defrosting—porcelain interior with rounded corners for easy cleaning—2½ inches of indestructible insulation—and many others.

Easy Terms

Come in and let us show you this beautiful Kelvinator—the greatest value, we honestly believe, in electric refrigeration to-day. Terms to fit your budget! Don't wait. Save money on the present low price!

A Word to Prospective Purchasers of Electric Refrigeration

"In the building of this refrigerator, there has been no compromise on the Kelvinator standards of the past 19 years. It possesses the same high quality and dependable performance found in every Kelvinator model, whether priced at $98 or $1,000. It could not be otherwise, for this is a standard Kelvinator."

MEN who take out life insurance seriously, unselfishly, not for themselves, but to protect their widows and children after death will be glad that insurance authorities have taken steps to limit re-borrowing on insurance policies.

In time of foolish hysteria, to borrow on their insurance policies to the limit, destroying the purpose of insurance, which is to protect those that depend on the insured, should anything happen to him.

The Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts, connected with an insurance company and responsible for wise insurance methods, in his last report, emphasizes the need of a protective statute against reckless borrowing on policies and predicts that "if it is not enacted the day will come when policy holders will lament the fact that a check was not provided."

In too many cases heads of families borrow to the limit on the policies and if they die, that which was supposed to protect the family becomes merely a piece of paper with most of its value gone. Borrowing, such as has occurred recently, had wise regulations checked it, would compel the more powerful companies to sacrifice choicest securities, the backbone of their investments, to meet the "run," the demand for loans by policy holders that are often frightened into foolish waste or re-investment of money that should have been left safely locked up in their insurance policies.

Be glad if you are insured in a company that discourages borrowing that jeopardizes a sacred investment.

President Roosevelt, still forcing the sun to set on any day, plans to put an end to ancient "hit or miss" systems of industry and employment. He requests Miss Frances Perkins, a Secretary of Labor, and Mr. Roy C. Royster, Secretary of Commerce, to arrange two committees, one to suggest plans to control production, the other hours and wages.

"I want to attend to my business in my own way," rounding up expanding indefinitely and disastrously. But it will suit the country if it can be done successfully.

Prices are going up, even farmers. Four weeks ago a writer bought first-class alfalfa delivered to a horse farm in New Jersey, for $21 a ton. Exactly the same alfalfa, ordered for the delivery yesterday cost $26.40. The writer, on his own alfalfa ranch in California, by the way, is selling highest grade of alfalfa for $12 a ton and less. Also oats are up, wheat is at hand, as Mr. and Mrs. Sankey sang it.

Mrs. Ethel Frisch, who lost use of her eyes six years ago, covers her sight and tells friends "You have no idea how beautiful the world looks." Even old folks have kitchen floor looks beautiful and sunshine fills her with happiness.

If those who complain so bitterly because prosperity has temporarily flown out of the window could blind for a while and regain their sight, there would be little complaining in the world.

Income tax payers will rejoice to hear that innocent little 2.3 is expected to pay to Uncle Sam more than the $125,000,000 annually estimated by Secretary Ogden Mills.

And musicians will be delighted to learn that in Milwaukee beer is driving out the barbers. "Hot-cha! hot-mama!" music comes in with "bathtub gin, boot whiskey and needed beer."

A boycott may work two ways and does so in New York. Many declare a boycott against Jews. "Small time" and "time vandevelde" shows in New York are experiencing a compulsory boycott against German songs, man actors, or imitation-Germans, and German "acts" generally.

Because beer is coming with beer gardens, vandevelde agents were speaking in German yesterday "turns" that seem "go so well with beer."

But in New York City are more than a million Jews who patrol public entertainments of all kinds and vandevelde agents say they would be too busy to permit German singers or comedians to perform. "German artists" and "great many cases Jewish, as Jewish comedians are boycotted."

Be glad if you are insured in a company that discourages borrowing that jeopardizes a sacred investment.

President Roosevelt, still forbidding the sun to set on any idle day, plans to put an end to our ancient "hit or miss" systems in industry and employment. He requests Miss Frances Perkins, able Secretary of Labor, and Mr. Roper, Secretary of Commerce, to arrange two committees, one to suggest a plan to control production, the other hours and wages.

This will not suit him who says: "I want to attend to my business in my own way," "rounding out," expanding indefinitely and disastrously. But it will suit the country if it can be done successfully.

Income tax payers will rejoice to hear that innocent little 3.2 beer is expected to pay to Uncle Sam more than the $125,000,000 annually estimated by Secretary Ogden L. Mills.

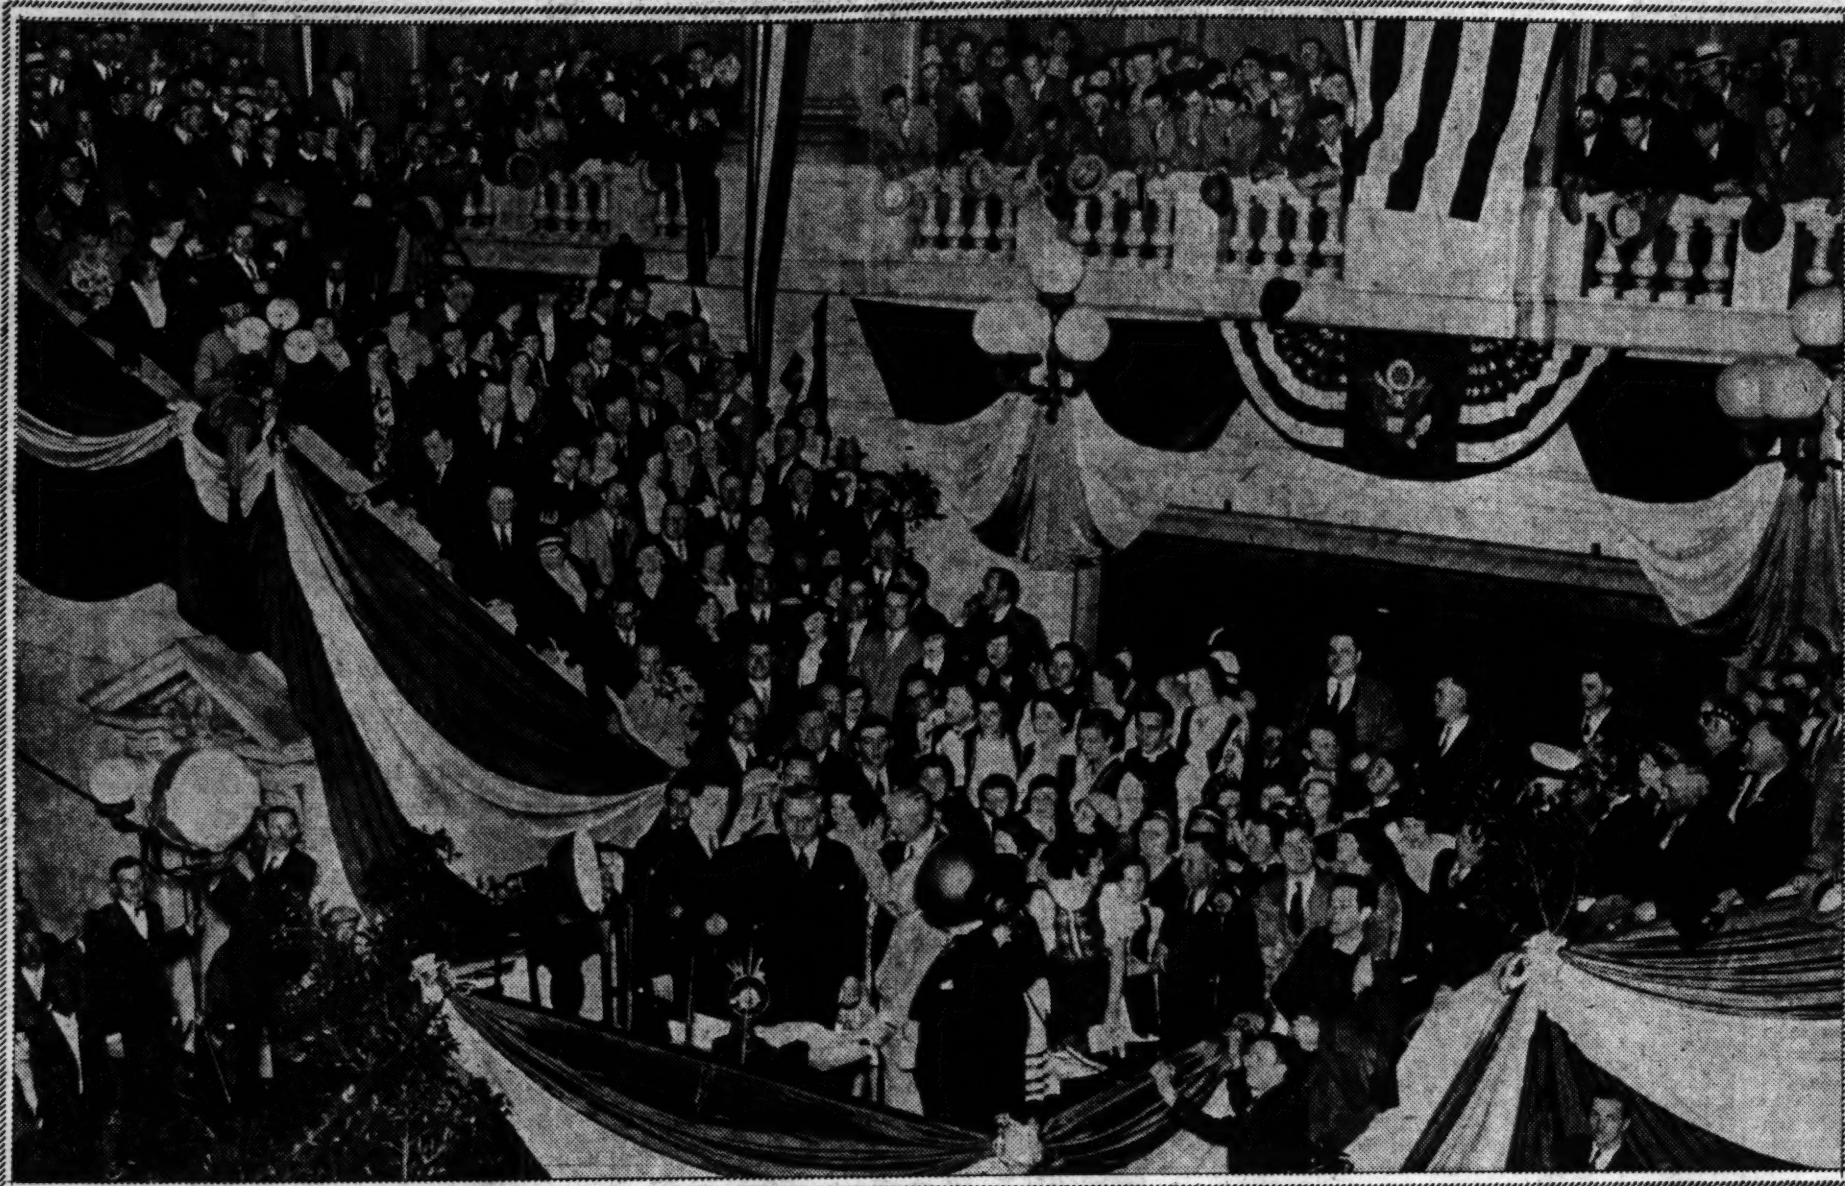

And musicians will be delighted to learn that in Milwaukee mild beer is driving out the barbarian "hot-chas hot-mama" music that came in with "bathtub gin, bootleg whiskey and needed beer." Real music is offered in Milwaukee's beer and palm gardens. It may spread, and crowd out gin and jazz.

A boycott may work two ways and does so in New York. Germany declares a boycott against Jews. "Small time" and other time vaudeville shows in New York are experiencing a compulsory boycott against German songs, German actors, or imitation-German actors, and German "acts" generally.

BRIDGE What Is Wrong With Our Motion Pictures?

by P. HAL SIMS

Helen Hayes Believes the Product Suffers From Mass Production

HELEN HAYES in her New York debut at the age of 9. HELEN HAYES, her daughter and her husband, CHARLES MACARTHUR.

WASHINGTON, April 18.

HELEN HAYES is sad because her plays are sad. Not that the famous stage and screen actress is depressed by the plays and by taking part in them, but she is tired of them, afraid of them. They will, she fears, be the ruin of her reputation.

"Don't see it," she is sure audiences will begin to comment on the films in which she appears, "it's just another Hayes tragedy."

Miss Hayes, who in private life might be known as Mrs. Charles MacArthur if that wouldn't be so utterly confusing to everyone who knows her, is at present staying in this city, along with her 3-year-old daughter, Mary. Mary, however, is not concerned about her mother's sad and sordid life.

Miss Hayes and her daughter while here are staying in a small brick bungalow. When in New York, they live in an apartment—three rooms for Miss Hayes has a suite on one floor, her husband, the playwright, one on the floor above, and Mary and her nurse the next above. Mary likes the present arrangement better; she can drag her dolls into the living room, unless there are visitors, when she is chased out into the yard.

The tiers of suites arrangement, she has to keep the dolls on the top tier, for her father might be in the throes of play composition below her, and her mother busy with backgammon or a party of friends below that.

Her sad plays, however, do not occupy her full time and conversation. Miss Hayes is quite willing to talk of Hollywood, the stage in general.

As to Hollywood, it is suffering from mass production, she believes. Because for some reason the producers can turn out 30 plays at no more expense than 30, they are paying more attention to quantity, and less to quality, she maintains.

month ago I was astonished at the number of unknown names in the casts of leading plays. It shows that anyone has a chance now to get a role. And I don't think, despite the fact that the theater has been hard hit by the movies and the radio as well as the depression that it can ever be replaced."

It was in the legitimate theater that Miss Hayes got her first start; she made her first appearance here in Washington, when but 4 years old. At that time she did a solo dance at the annual ball of a large dancing class to which she belonged. She suffered greatly from stage fright, a symptom which no longer troubles her.

Two years later she made her second appearance, in an interpretation of "The Gibson Girl." She did it so well that the attention of Lew Fields, who chanced to be appearing in Washington at the time, was attracted, and he wrote to her to look him up if ever she went to New York.

She did not go to New York immediately, for she was offered a part with a local stock company as Prince Charles in a production of "The Royal Family," and began her professional career.

When Helen was 8 years old her mother decided to take her to New York, and on the strength of Lew Fields' statement that management would be waiting to snap her up, write letters announcing they were coming. But no managers were waiting with outstretched hands, and finally they decided to see Fields himself. He sustained his own appraisal by casting her in his ensuing production, "Old Dutch."

The first night of her appearance drew a packed house; that, however, was not necessarily the attraction of Miss Hayes, for on the bill with her were such celebrities as Vernon Castle, John Bunny, Charles Judels, Eva Davenport and others. In fact, Helen herself did not get a line from the reviewers.

It was not until about five years later—when she was nearly 15—that the critics began to notice her, especially during her appearance in the plays of Booth Tarkington. And finally, in "Bab," by Edward Childs Carpenter, she was featured, and achieved celebrity in her own right. From that time on, her career and reputation were pretty certain, with a long series of stage engagements followed by the inevitable offers from Hollywood.

Among the appearance which insured her place was when she was cast in the revival of Sir James Barrie's play, "What Every Woman Knows." The play had been popularized by Maude Adams.

Miss Hayes was fully established when she married MacArthur in August, 1928. The ceremony was held in a New York law office, the occupant of which also was a Magistrate, with Alexander Woolcott, New York critic, and Ben Hecht, playwright and novelist who had collaborated with MacArthur in two plays, as attendants. It was a decidedly informal affair, and the age-old joke of the groom being unable to find the ring took place. Only, instead of having left it at home or lost it in a hole in his

Still Missing.

THE animals sat around Willy Nilly's shop, looking very worried. They were more and more worried as Jelly Bear disappeared.

"Of course," said Willy Nilly, "he may have gone away on and on and not realized how far he had gone until it was night, and too late to make the trip back at one time."

"But he loves the dark," protested Top Notch. "That's true," Willy Nilly agreed. He wiped away two tears.

That had come into his two eyes mistake. He did not want to show sad he felt.

"You're not crying, are you, Willy Nilly?" asked Rip, the Dog. Willy Nilly blinked bravely and changed the subject. Rip's head hung down more droopingly than ever.

He was thinking how Jelly Bear had been willing to be awakened from his sleep in order to come and pull Willy Nilly out of the bog.

The others were remembering how Jelly Bear had saved Willy Nilly the night of the blizzard and had kept him warm in the bag.

"Of course he didn't say he was going to spend all his life with said Willy Nilly. "Maybe he had longed for the great woods where it is wilder, and hated to tell that he was going to leave us."

"He'd never leave us without saying so," Rip answered. "And don't think he wants to leave Poldie Muddle."

So a sad collection of animals sat around Willy Nilly's shop and made their plans about trying to find Jelly Bear. Each heart beating so quickly—it was time to have Jelly Bear missing.

TODAY'S PATTERN

Chic for Matrons

THE smart matron, with a not-too-slim figure, must choose her frocks wisely if she would vie with her slim sister. There's a distinct advantage if she fashions her own frocks. . . for then she can study her figure and use only those lines and details that best suit her. Mindful of this, we suggest this stunning model with very chic lines that achieve a taller and slimmer silhouette. It has becoming revers, bell sleeves, a snug hip yoke and cleverly applied bands of contrast. Buttons and topstitching add a smart note. Ideal for retired folks.

Pattern 2380 may be ordered only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrast. Illustrated step-by-step sewing included with this pattern.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED.

SEND FOR THE ANNE ADAMS FASHION BOOK, showing Paris-inspired models for every sewing need—all practical and easy and economical to make. Models for the larger figure, junior and kiddie styles, lingerie and accessory patterns are also featured. PRICE OF CATALOG, FIFTEEN CENTS. GETHER TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. Address all mail orders to St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Pattern Department, 243 W. 7th St., New York City.

Clean, Fresh Water

So many people who own dogs pay little attention to their drinking water, whether it is fresh and cool and plentiful, and the container is clean. Water is as essential to a dog as to a person, and a little attention paid to it each day means better health for the animal.

White Wood

When the plain board top of the kitchen table or the wooden steps leading to the cellar become discolored and darkened by usage, they can be bleached nicely by a solution of one teaspoon oxalic acid to one cup of hot water. Apply with a scrubbing brush.

For the Home Owner

Learn how to put new washers on your water faucets. These small repairs can be done easily without the aid of a plumber and are not so apt to be neglected for a long time if you know how to remedy them. Leaking spigots mean larger water bills.

"Extravagance, I call it! All these new underthings for a poor man's wife."

"But they aren't new, Aunt Sarah, I've Luxed them dozens of times..."

"YOU see, I Lux underthings and stockings after each wearing. This keeps them new looking ever so long. I haven't bought any new lingerie this year!"

Lux removes perspiration, saves delicate colors and fabrics. Avoid cake-cream rubbing and soaps containing harmful alkali. These tend to fade colors, weaken silk. Anything safe in water is safe in Lux.

TOMORROW'S HOROSCOPE

by WYNN

For Thursday, April 20. STEER a cautious course, till early afternoon; then grab at least half of the opportunities that are sailing by during the balance of the day. Can be made highly profitable by those whose brains aren't out of the thinking habit.

Salvation. Now, at last, we come to the correct translation of the Word we have been calling "Salvation."

Strangely enough, though this word has been used by all of us, few know the correct meaning of it. It was originally written in the Greek Bible, "soteria." This is the word that means "wholeness." What a great light this sheds on many passages of the Good Book! We are told we must work for salvation; but if we don't know what salvation is, what chance have we of attaining it? But wholeness means something. When we are told to work for wholeness we can appreciate our objective and go to it, making everything we do, think, say and write, push us onward toward the goal. Everyone wants to be whole, complete, all there. Work for it.

Your Year Ahead. If the opportunity presents itself, and if you are able to make such an opportunity, get out and travel—make the coming year one of mental expansion if you possibly can. Look ahead and take steps to be advanced considerably, in business and also in education, a year from now. Caution with money matters during January next. Danger: Dec. 22 to 27; April 12 to 23, 1934.

Tomorrow. Can be made the best day of the whole week; get what's coming to you.

PARENTS

Confidential Talks With Mothers and Fathers.

by Alice Judson Peale

About Rules.

IT IS parents who are not very sure of their authority who tend to make a great many rules for their children. They call their demands rules, in the hope of making them more effective.

Before they realize it, such parents have succeeded in hedging their children about with so many rules with attached penalties for breaking them, that they can scarcely move without doing something forbidden.

So, of course, they disobey, and the more they disobey the more the parents try to bind them with more rules and more penalties, each less effective than the last.

The wisest parent who knows what he is about, makes the fewest rules with which it is possible for the child to get along in reasonable harmony with school and home.

These few rules have to do with really essential matters. Even these are not laid down in the spirit of coercion, they are rather accepted by the child as a matter-of-fact part of his world.

But the child knows that he must obey under penalty of suffering parental disapproval.

With a well brought-up child this usually is enough. Occasionally an especially headstrong child requires definite punishment to teach him that he may not do certain things.

This he accepts as just because he understands clearly that he has failed to meet an unvarying routine of his living.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN.

SCOTTY and Mom walked over to the Porters' through the deepening twilight. It was cold. Their footsteps rang on the pavement, and every once in a while a glaze of ice on a puddle tinkled into pieces.

"You're sure you have everything?" said Mom. "I don't like to bother you, but it would be so dreadful if you forgot!"

"No," he said. "I haven't forgotten anything. Ring, license, steamer tickets, money."

"I can hardly believe my boy is going to be married."

"You mustn't cry, Mom," said Scotty. "It's too cold, and it's the best thing that ever happened to me."

Nothing could go wrong now. Ray Harrison had put the car in the Porters' garage this morning, and the bags were in it.

"I hate to have you drive that car on these icy roads," he said, mechanically.

That crowd of reporters in front of the house seemed something, all right, in spite of his having Ray sneak the car out this morning, in spite of his walking over like this. And there'd be another gang at the Porters'. Yes, there they were, hanging around the gate, sitting on the steps. There wasn't any use, really, trying to dodge them.

The crowd in the Porters' yard closed in on them. "Come on, Commander, don't hold out on us. Just give us an idea!"

"You're wasting your time hanging around here," said Scotty. "When we have anything to tell you we'll let you know. Run along, now. There must be some torso murders that need you. Come on, Mom."

They started up the steps, and suddenly one of them put his hand on Scotty's arm.

"Hold on a minute, Commander, when I shook him loose. 'Get out of my way,' he said, 'before I sock you.' Darn them, why couldn't they keep their hands off him? That he wouldn't stand for, being handled."

It was warm inside after the cold street. The shades were drawn in the living room, and there were candles all around and flowers. No one there but Mr. and Mrs. Porter and Ray Harrison, whom he'd grown up with, and Mom. That was the way a wedding ought to be. No one but the people who really cared about you. The business of a church full of people standing, and ushers and bridesmaids, parties, rehearsals!

THIS was the kind of wedding for him and Janet. Scotty wished he didn't have to remember that crowd outside on the porch. If just once he could come out of a door and not meet a group of people and get snatched at him. He asked him questions and got in his way and gnawed at him. He wanted to think about Janet. They were going to be married. Going to be together for the rest of their lives. She was upstairs now. Soon, in a few minutes, she'd come into the room. He'd waited for this so long. Since that evening when he saw her, a gawky little kid with pigtail, standing by the gate in the spring twilight, all the days had been leading up to this.

He wanted to realize it fully, hold it in his mind, and he found himself wondering how they were going to get through that crowd outside and away by themselves. Planning, scheming. If we took that back road down to Westerly we might lose them. If we can only dodge them until the boat sails.

Why had he let himself lose his temper then on the steps? He wanted to be so mature. After all, those men couldn't help bounding him. They were just doing their jobs. But why did people have to grab at him? Why couldn't they leave him alone? Perhaps it was his mistake to go to Bermuda. That was so obvious a place for a honeymoon. Perhaps if they'd just taken the car and gone to some little town up in Vermont or—well, Canada or—

THERE was a scuffling on the porch. The bell rang. That would be the minister, "Ray," said Scotty, "help him fight off those buzzards, will you? They'll try to crowd in with him."

Ray was back in a minute with Dr. Williams. "They say if you'll give them a picture, that's all they want," he said.

"Tell them to go jump in the lake," said Scotty. "And, Ray, disconnect that bell, will you?"

Why should he let them in here? They'd want him and Janet to be married all over again for the sound newswall. Like that terrible day in New York. They'd be setting off flash lights here in this quiet room with the candlelight.

Janet came in with her father. No girl ever held her head quite so beautifully as Janet. Blue. He'd hoped she'd wear blue. And his flowers on her shoulder. He'd always remember her like this.

"I, Scotty, take thee, Janet—" "I, Janet, take thee, Scotty," said Janet, taking the words from his mouth. Her voice didn't tremble. He liked that. She had a lovely voice. Always had had since she was a little girl.

"With this ring—" Her hands were so strong and capable. He remembered seeing them of the wheel of the car that night.

Among the Easter hats was this one of beige straw. Pink velvet violets on a base of green leaves formed the decoration.

News for STAMP Collectors

ONE of the most colorful and attractively designed sets of the year comes from Tripoli, Italian colony in North Africa.

Those who make a specialty of wild life pictures are almost certain to like the 10 cent stamp, purple with an ostrich, the 1.25 lire, blue with a lion, and the 5 lire, green with a camel. The 5 lire stamp is a real gem, with a camel, a lion, and a zebra. The 1.25 lire stamp is a real gem, with a camel, a lion, and a zebra. The 5 lire stamp is a real gem, with a camel, a lion, and a zebra.

Other values are: 25c, green, small tree growing from a rock; 30c, light brown, hooded native with drum; 50c, purple, archway with flags of a procession under it; 101 plus 2.50, red, the symbolical fates rising above an African city.

Airmail stamps show planes flying over various sections of the territory. The values are: 50c, green; 75c, red; 11, blue; 21 plus 50c, purple; 51 plus 11, light brown; 101 plus 2.50, dark gray.

The set is issued in connection with Tripoli's seventh agricultural fair. Proceeds from the overcharges on some of the values are used to help meet expenses of the fair.

Few Commemoratives.

In contrast with many countries, the United States has issued few commemorative stamps, and those issued have been confined to a few values.

The revised "Description of United States Postage Stamps," just published by the Postoffice Department, lists only 42 special issues up until the end of 1932. Twenty-two of these, however, have come within the past five years.

United States stamps, the publication says, have carried the portraits of 21 Presidents and of 24 other persons prominent in American history.

The pamphlet, which describes all this country's stamps from the first issue in 1787 to the Daniel Webster commemorative of 1932, may be bought for 10 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C.

Items of Interest.

A Texas collector has a most unusual item just recently added to his collection, and a very valuable one. It is a cover bearing all of the United States commemorative issues from 1893 to 1933, postmarked in Washington, March 4, 1933 at 3 p. m.

A new ruling of the Postoffice Department will place on sale internal revenue stamps in all first and second class postoffices as well as third and fourth class offices when situated in county seats. This ruling applies only to documentary stamps around our room if they could. Our room! I haven't kissed you for four hours.

"Never mind, darling. We have a long time ahead of us."

SEEN in THE STORES

By SYLVIA

IT won't be many weeks until everyone who has a porch will be making the most of it for lounging, sleeping and dining. In preparation for this movement out-of-doors the St. Louis stores have on display new styles in porch furniture. Regardless of whether a porch is enclosed or exposed to the weather, practically all of this new furniture can be used since it is rain-proof. Colorful fabrics and bright paint are apparent, but practical features have not been overlooked.

Those who like to sleep on the porch during hot St. Louis nights will welcome a new combination swing and bed. It is a full length and attractive cotone-covered swing by day but a bed by night. The transformation takes place merely by unhooking the arms, and letting down the back.

Another nice thing about the new swings for porches is that they are shaped to the figure. Everyone who has tried to sit in one of the old-style swings for very long at a time has longed for a more comfortable spot. But with the shaped back and seat there is no chance of getting weary. An increased number of shorter or the love-seat size swings are observed.

One of the snappiest sets of swing and chairs for a sun porch carries out a color scheme of orange and black. The frame work of the pieces is made of tubing while the arm rests are wood. The coverings are of a new type of fabric which looks like old-fashioned hair-cloth but is waterproof.

Any number of attractive tables are on exhibition. Especially adaptable for outdoor serving are the wrought iron tables which have detachable tops that may be used as trays. Another nice feature of these small tables is that they are folding, so that they may be carried easily from one spot to another or stored away.

The use of flower pots for bookends may sound out of reason, but it is being done most effectively. These pots, as you see in the sketch, have one straight side so that the books rest securely against it. Separate containers are provided for the plants, thus assuring that no moisture penetrates to choice volumes. These novelties are of metal painted in a lovely chartreuse shade. A lattice panel decorates the front, while hand-painted flowers design doll up the sides.

If you are a lucky person who has a patio, then by all means invest in a big umbrella. You can get them in the most vivid shades imaginable, or if you want to be different from the crowd you can get one in black and white. These black and white parasols, by the way, are most effective if you're carrying out a black and white color scheme with all your patio decorations.

Chromium merchandise is seen everywhere so why not on our porches? In the past years it has been considered prohibitive in price but this season things are different. Chromium is no longer an oddity, and therefore most of us can afford it. Some bright and shining examples of what this finish does for tables, couches and chairs are on display in the furniture departments.

A novelty in decoration is the combined flower pot and table. It is high enough to sit beside a chair to hold smoking things or liquid refreshments. The lower section which is quite near the floor holds a potted plant. The upper tier has a removable glass top which not only serves as a tray but permits the foliage of the plant to add decoration.

In HOLLYWOOD

WITH LOUELLA PARSONS

Herbert Marshall... buying toys for the expected baby.

PLENTY of romance and drama is connected with New York theatrical boarding houses. Howard Rogers and Edgar Allan Woolf have written an original story, "La Belle Perkins," in which the action takes place in a theatrical boarding house. Jackie Cooper plays the small boy in the picture. The Warner Brothers' players are being farmed out in large and elegant quantities, what with the closing of the studio for the annual layout. All the other studios are grabbing the Warner talent. I wouldn't be knowing whether Spencer Tracy can sing. I do know he has great appeal for the ladies and that his screen plans are of interest to them. Spencer is scheduled for a singing picture, that's why his voice is being questioned. He plays opposite Lillian Harvey in "My Weakness."

Herbert Marshall is in England. The Marshalls are expecting the birth of their second child. He could drag him here, because his wife is in London and he is eager to stay with her. He bought all sorts of toys, clothes and what not for the anticipated heir. Douglas Fairbanks Jr. may say "Adieu" to Warner Brothers next month. His contract expires and so far there hasn't been a move on either side. O'Brien, father of George, and his statement from Mrs. Loulou Dietz, Phoenix after arriving here on the S. S. Rex. Do Proprieties Change?

A MAN asks: "May I appeal to you for reconsideration on the question as to the correct position for a gentleman when walking on the street with a lady. My plan is for a revision of the rule that a gentleman should walk on the curb side. My opinion is that the right is that the place of honor. No gentleman would enter a ballroom, walk up a church aisle or go into the dining room at a formal dinner with a lady on his left arm. Since the passing of the days of horse drawn vehicles, with the possibility of a runaway, there is no more danger on the curb side than on the inside. Why, therefore, is it not logical to give a lady her 'rightful' position?"

Answer: Although the place made by the passing wheels of a motor are just as bad as those made by carriages or wagons, I agree that there is no longer a protective reason for the rule. It is to counterbalance the discovery of putting a lady on your left. Certainly I can find no possible objection to doing as you suggest. As a matter of fact, it has been done over and over again by most of those not blindly rule-bound. On the other hand, to us in the United States, putting a lady on your right has not the significance that it given it in Europe, where a lady on the left is labeled "not a lady." All of which leaves your question more or less optional.

Dear Mrs. Post: Has custom changed? My husband gets so answer to my complaint to him because when we go to dinner parties, instead of confining his courtesies to his own wife, sitting next to him on one side, he gives more attention to the lady next to him on the other. He says it is his duty in the first place, and in the second place if our hostess knew better she would not seat husband and wife beside each other.

Answer: Your husband is right in his opinion of such a hostess since seating a man and his wife NEXT to each other is the most topsy-turvy procedure of which I have ever heard. But under such strange circumstances I don't think he could be considered rude to you if he talked to the stranger more than to you. Dinner-party talk small talk between husband and wife would be a rather absurd pretence—unless one of them has by chance a piece of news that has not as yet been told to the other. MAN OF THE HOUR
(Hartford, Ky., News)
Lieut. Governor Chandler was the chief speaker at the Beaver Dam banquet at the school building in that city, Thursday night of last week. He spoke in opposition to the proposed 3 per cent sales tax. At the request of the audience he also sang "Sonny Boy" and other selections, he having won quite a name as a singer during his campaign in 1931 and while presiding over the State Senate.

SHAW'S New York speech has 'em still fighting in the aisles. Nobody knows exactly what he meant. And he is too smart to explain it.

But we learned his formula. And it's a good one. Consists of the three following important points:

FIRST: Make your speech.

SECOND: Have a boat to catch.

THIRD: Don't miss the boat.

And he is the smartest showman on the stage today. He has no competition because he owns the only long white beard in the entertainment business.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Moe Rosenberg, friend of Gov. Horner, political ally of the late Mayor Cermak and Democratic boss of Chicago's West Side, was indicted by Federal Grand Jury yesterday on a charge of evading income tax. He is accused of failure to pay $65,000 for 1929 and 1930. The indictment was returned by Judge United States District Judge James H. Wilkerson after United States Attorney Dwight Green—the man who successfully prosecuted "Scarface" Al Capone on a similar charge—presented evidence to the Grand Jury for two days. Two felony counts, each carrying a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine on conviction, charge evasion of $54,847 taxes for 1929 and $9470 for 1930. Immediately after the indictment was returned, Alderman Jacob Bergery, Democratic floor leader of the City Council, appeared and scheduled a surety bond for $10,000 for Rosenberg.

Until 1929, Rosenberg was a relatively obscure junk dealer. That year, his brother, Michael, died and the mantle of ward boss descended to Moe. In five years Rosenberg attained a reputation as one of the most powerful parasites in the city.

There was speculation as to the significance of a $190,709 item listed as "Income against sources" in the indictment against Rosenberg. It was charged that the defendant had a net income for the two years of $245,932, a large part of which was derived from the Rosenberg Junk & Metal Co., of which he is president. District Attorney Green refused to comment on the $190,709 item.

Rosenberg's Record: Confessed arsonist and former convict. In 1913 Rosenberg was indicted for arson, confessed his guilt and served as a witness in the State against others, who were convicted. The other defendants were men to whom he supplied firebug. A large quantity of gasoline in cans was used to start fire and Rosenberg's own testimony disclosed that he helped the gasoline into the building several hours before the fire. At the time Rosenberg was a saloon keeper and the professional fire in the case, Ben Fink, alias Benjamin Franklin, was his bartender. He received $500 for making fire, and he gave his bartender, "Lorch," $35.

Rosenberg and two other men were indicted in Chicago in 1915 charged with conspiracy, based on thefts from interstate shipments. He was convicted by a jury in Federal Court April 29, 1915, and sentenced to 20 months in Leavenworth penitentiary. The sentence was started April 28, 1915. He was paroled after serving seven months. After returning to Chicago from the penitentiary, Rosenberg went into a junk business that his brother had conducted and obtained a contract from the Insull interests to handle all the junk from the companies.

Federal agents investigating Rosenberg's criminal record in preparation for the income-tax case discovered that the records of plea of guilty in the arson case all connection with that case removed from the files of Cook County State's Attorney's office and never replaced. Pages the court clerk's records had been mutilated or removed altogether. The record is available in the Supreme Court record of appeal of one of the convicted defendants.

BRECKINRIDGE LONG NAMED
U. S. AMBASSADOR TO ITALY

Capt. Ernest J. King Nominated to Succeed Admiral Moffett in Naval Bureau. WASHINGTON, April 20.—President Roosevelt today named Breckinridge Long of Missouri, as ambassador to Italy. Capt. Ernest J. King was named to head the Naval Bureau of Aeronautics, succeeding Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, who lost his life in the Akron disaster. Long, formerly a St. Louis attorney, was Assistant Secretary of State under Woodrow Wilson. He was a Democratic nominee for Senate from Missouri in 1920.
